TRANSPORT IN SEA DUEL.

American Troopship Distances U-Boat After Exchange of Shots.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Oct. 18.—The homeward-bound army transport Amphion had a two hours' running fight with a German submarine 800 miles off the Atlantic Coast last Saturday morning in which eight men on the American ship were wounded, two fatally. The transport arrived here today and reported that so far as those aboard could determine the submarine was not badly damaged, if at all.

The first shots carried away the Amphion's wireless and she was unable to call for help. The naval gun crews answered the enemy shots and the transport crowded on all steam, drawing away from the submarine The transport's superstructure was riddled with shells and shrapnel.

The Amphion formerly was the North German Lloyd liner Koln, is of 7409 gross tons and has a speed of 12½ knots an hour. She was seized at Boston when this country entered the war and after being repaired by the Shipping Board was turned over to the army.

After evading the submarine the Amphion put into an island port, where the more seriously wounded were landed. On arriving here she went to a shipyard for repairs.

Names of the wounded men were not published here. Most of them were said to have been members of the gun crew.

SEATTLE, Oct. 18.—Miners of the Kuskokwim district of Alaska, said to be running short of food, may yet be supplied by the schooner Ruby, which is to sail in a few days in another effort to reach Goodnews Bay, near Kuskokwim Bay, before the ice closes in. Storms nullified an effort to send supplies to the district last summer.

BASEL, Oct. 18.—Baron Burian, the Austrian Premier, has resigned, according to Vienna newspapers.

LONDON, Oct. 18, 7 p.m.—The British Foreign Office announced officially this evening there was no truth in the rumor that His Majesty's government had been in touch with Austrian statesmen in Switzerland or elsewhere.

VIENNA (via Basel, Switzerland) Oct. 18.—Steps for the organization of Austria on a federalized basis were proclaimed by Emperor Charles today. The plan does not include the union of Austrian Poland with "the independent Polish state," the Emperor declared. The city of Trieste and the Trieste region will be treated separately, "in conformity with the wishes of the population."

Emperor Charles addressed the Austrian land and sea forces at the same time he issued his message to the people. In his order to the sailors and soldiers the Emperor expressed "firm confidence that the concord which has existed in the army and the navy until now will exist for the future for the well being of the new confederated Austria."

CZECHS LACK FAITH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 18. (British Wireless Service.)—The Czecho-Slovak National Council and the Union of Czech Deputies at their meeting in Prague, last September 29, adopted a resolution declaring that the Czechs have no faith in the promises of the Vienna government. The resolution, which was suppressed by the Austrian censor, has just reached London. It says in part:

"The hard experience of our nation orders us imperatively to hold firm in matters whereby reality is stronger than all promises. The Vienna government is unable to give us anything we ask for.

"The Czech nation will follow its anti-German policy whatever may happen, being sure that its just cause will finally triumph especially today when it has become part of the great ideals of the Entente whose victory will be the only good produced by this terrible war."

DON'T WEAKEN, IS ARMY'S PLEA

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS,
The Times' Own War Correspondent in France.

[SPECIAL CABLE.]

PARIS, Oct. 18.—With dynamic, hurtling force the answer of President Wilson to the Hohenzollerns came to the men from the western reaches of America who had wrested from the Hun many leagues of wilted France.

I heard their cheers ringing through the forest of Argonne when the answer was read—cheers which were re-echoed in Verdun and in Picardy. Civilization and savagery are at final grasp, and savagery is in its death struggle.

The fighting men want no half-victory. They feel that the very dead, those who have made the supreme sacrifice, would cry out in protest at any compromise. Compromise would mean that those men, your flesh and blood, had given their lives in vain. Theirs is the fervor of pent-up passion for justice and retribution. For weeks I have been with the troops. They have seen at first hand the work of the Hun in the countryside which they reclaimed by their courage.

Little more than a cinder-burnt crisp by the fires of war were thousands of wantonly destroyed homes, and each home a tragedy.

"Don't weaken" is the words which the wild westerners send to those at home. Victory, clean and decisive, is within the grasp of the Allies.

GRAND ALLIED COUNCIL TO DEAL WITH GERMANS IS PLANNED AT CAPITAL

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 18.—The German reply to President Wilson probably will be dispatched on Saturday afternoon, according to advices received here.

BASEL (Switzerland) Oct. 18.—(Havas.) There were government conferences in Berlin yesterday that lasted all day, according to advices received here. The War Ministry held a five-hour session in which the military chiefs participated. The official text of President Wilson's reply to the German peace proposals has not yet reached Berlin, says the Frankfort Gazette.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 19.—The German War Cabinet met at 6 o'clock last evening to decide the definite form of the German answer to President Wilson.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The definite terms on which Germany will be granted the armistice and eventually the peace for which she has sued will be determined at a grand council of the United States and the Allies. Allied diplomatic action in dealing with the Central Powers is to be united henceforth, like Allied military operations.

This conference of representatives of all the nations fighting Germany will be held in Paris or London probably within the next fortnight.

While the German government is endeavoring to continue the negotiations for a compromise, all indications are to the effect that the smashing blows of the Allied armies and the weakening of the morale of the German people will compel Berlin to ask for terms of surrender.

The Allied nations will be ready to state these terms concretely as a result of the deliberations of the grand conference, the participants in which will be advised by Marshal Foch and the other military advisers to the Supreme War Council.

President Wilson said in his reply to Germany last Monday that guarantees must be given by the Central Powers of their acceptance of the Allied terms and that an armistice can be granted only under conditions assuring the maintenance of the military supremacy of the Allies. He said that such guarantees and conditions would be determined on the advice of the Allied military commanders.

It is in pursuance of this policy laid down by the President that the Allies have arranged for a conference or series of conferences, at which the views of all the nations fighting Germany concerning the punishment to be imposed on the Central Powers for their crimes, the measure of the satisfaction to be exacted, the guarantees to be required and the steps to be taken to prevent a recurrence of the world war will be expressed. The terms then granted to Germany will represent, it is believed, the undivided decision and determination of all the nations arraigned against the Central Powers.

What the terms will be is a matter that now belongs almost wholly to the realm of speculation. Among the Allies there is strong support of the proposition to require Germany to surrender her navy and the supreme war council is in favor of exacting the surrender of Metz, Strassburg and Coblenz, the strategic keys to Germany, as one of the guarantees.

ALSACE-LORRAINE.

This is a further indication of the determination of the Allies to enforce the retrocession of Alsace-Lorraine to France and the incorporation of Prussian Poland as an independent Polish state.

The deliberations of the grand council will continue until Germany surrenders, and thereafter will be merged into the proceedings of the peace conference which will sit during the armistice. How soon the Allies may be called on to present their definite armistice terms is a matter of animated speculation everywhere in official circles. Some think Germany cannot possibly hold out another two months against all the forces encompassing her, while others believe the fighting will continue well into next year before the enemy capitulates.

The decision to fix the terms of Germany's surrender at a grand conference of the Allies is the result of the anxiety of the British and French governments concerning the processes of dealing with the Teutonic overtures. The uncertainty as to the replies President Wilson would make to Berlin agitated Allied countries as well as the United States. British and French statesmen expressed the opinion that it would be well for the Allies to establish a unified direction of diplomatic action as they had created a unified control of military operations. President Wilson has acquiesced in the suggestion, which will be put into operation in the forthcoming conferences.

NO NEWS FROM BERLIN.

The State Department was without any information today indicating when the expected rejoinder to President Wilson by the German government will be received. Prince Max was scheduled to make a statement to the Reichstag today, and it is possible that the latest proposition of the German government will be on its way tomorrow.

The note to Austria-Hungary has been written, but its dispatch delayed, for reasons not explained. It was intimated at the State Department today that the government was waiting to see the effect produced by the note to Germany.

The circumstances surrounding the preparation of the note to Vienna suggest that President Wilson had expected an immediate reply from Germany to the implied questioning in his answer to the Berlin proposal concerning Germany's competency and readiness to provide the guarantees prescribed by him.

Germany has communicated the President's reply to Vienna and the declarations made by Foreign Minister Burian before the Hungarian delegation indicate that Berlin and Vienna have exchanged views on ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR FOR DRINKS REDUCED.

HOUSEHOLDS TO BE HELD TO TWO POUNDS PER PERSON PER MONTH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Restrictions on use of sugar during November and December were announced by the Food Administration tonight. Household allotments will be held strictly to two pounds a person monthly and the supply for manufacturers of soft drinks, ice cream and confections will be reduced sharply, it was said.

For manufacturing soft drinks and ice cream the amount supplied during November and December will be 25 per cent of the normal requirements, or a cut of one-half from the normal amount since July.

Virtually all manufacturers of beverage syrups, chewing gum, chocolate, cocoa, malted milk, table syrups and molasses, soda water and artificial honey, will be cut to 50 per cent of the average monthly use from July 1 to December 31, 1917.

TWO DEAD IN EARLY MORNING CAR SMASH.

Napoleon Victor of No. 927 West Forty-first street, Los Angeles, and a girl, name undecided but supposed to be either Nina Dodsworth or Georgia Stephens, were killed in two auto smashes near Long Beach early this morning. In the same accidents a dozen other persons were injured, four seriously. The seriously hurt are:

C. G. Schrandt, No. 226 North Ditman street, Los Angeles; J. H. Walker, No. 444 South Spring street; Mrs. S. Herrod, No. 330 South Grand avenue, and Mabel Wolf, No. 1127 West Eleventh street, Los Angeles.

Schrandt and Walker are at the Long Beach Sanatorium and the two women are at the Seaside Hospital, Long Beach.

Napoleon Victor and the dead girl were in a party composed of four men and four women. The Buick car in which they were riding went off a bridge near the Fred Bixby ranch between Long Beach and Seal Beach. The railing of the bridge went right through the car, killing Victor and injuring the others.

A big Cadillac car coming from Seal Beach picked up the injured, but left the dead man. The Cadillac was driven so fast that it left the road and turned turtle, everyone in it being more or less injured.

ALLIES GAIN IN RUSSIA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

The text of the statement says:

A large quantity of bombs, ammunition and material has been captured, including twenty-eight boats, three machine guns and 600 rifles.

"On the Archangel front, Allied forces have occupied Kadish, on the Emza River, fifty miles south of its confluence with the Dvina, and advanced six miles south along the Archangel-Vologda Railway."

Formal Declaration of Independence is Issued by the Czecho-Slovak National Counc

CZECH REPUBLIC IS PROCLAIMED.

Democracy to be Established Throughout Bohemia.

Overthrow of the Hapsburg Dynasty Part of Plans.

Divine Right of Kings to Rule People is Denied.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Independence of the Czecho-Slovak nation was declared formally today by the Czecho-Slovak National Council, recognized by the United States and the Entente Allies as a belligerent de facto government. The declaration, renouncing allegiance to the Hapsburg dynasty and announcing principles for the foundation of a republic, was issued in Paris and a copy was handed to President Wilson by J. Clear, of the council's staff in Washington.

The document is signed by Thomas G. Masaryk, president of the council, as Premier and Minister of Finance, and by other officers of the provisional government. It follows:

CZECH DECLARATION.

"Declaration of independence of the Czecho-Slovak nation by its provisional government:

"At this grave moment, when the Hohenzollerns are offering peace in order to stop the victorious advance of the Allied armies and to prevent the dismemberment of Austria-Hungary and Turkey, and when the Hapsburgs are promising the federalization of the empire and autonomy to the dissatisfied nationalities committed to their rule, we, the Czecho-Slovak National Council, recognized by the Allied and American governments as the provisional government of the Czecho-Slovak state and nation, in complete accord with the declaration of the Czech deputies made in Prague on January 6, 1918, and realizing that federalization, and, still more, autonomy, mean nothing under a Hapsburg dynasty, do hereby make and declare this our declaration of independence.

"We do this because of our belief that no people should be forced to live under a sovereignty they do not recognize and because of our knowledge and firm conviction that our nation cannot freely develop in a Hapsburg mock federation, which is only a new form of the denationalizing oppression under which we have suffered for the last 400 years. We consider freedom to be the first prerequisite for federalization, and believe that the free nations of Central and Eastern Europe may easily federate should they find it necessary.

HISTORIC RIGHTS.

"We make this declaration on the basis of our historic and natural right. We have been an independent state since the seventh century; and, in 1526 as an independent state, consisting of Bohemia, Moravia and Silesia, we joined with Austria and Hungary in a defensive union against the Turkish danger. We have never voluntarily surrendered our rights as an independent state in this confederation. The Hapsburgs broke their compact with our nation by illegally transgressing our rights and violating the constitution of our state, which they had pledged themselves to uphold, and we therefore refuse longer to remain a part of Austria-Hungary in any form.

"We claim the right of Bohemia to be reunited with her Slovak brethren of Slovakia, once part of our national state, later torn from our national body and fifty years ago incorporated in the Hungarian state of the Magyars, who, by their unspeakable violence and ruthless oppression of their subject races, have lost all moral and human right to rule anybody but themselves.

"The world knows the history of our struggle against the Hapsburg oppression, intensified and systematized by the Austro-Hungarian dualist compromise of 1867. This dualism is only a shameless organization of brute force and exploitation of the majority by the minority; it is a political conspiracy of the Germans and Magyars against our own as well as the other Slav and the Latin nations of the monarchy. The world knows the justice of our claims, which the Hapsburgs themselves dared not deny. Francis Joseph, in the most solemn manner repeatedly recognized the sovereign right of our nation.

OPPOSED BY GERMANS.

"The Germans and Magyars opposed this recognition and Austria-Hungary, bowing before the Pan-Germans, became a colony of Germany, and, as her vanguards to the east provoked the last Balkan conflict, as well as the present world war, which was begun by the Hapsburgs alone without the consent of the representatives of the people.

"We cannot and will not continue to live under the direct or indirect rule of the violators of Belgium, France and Serbia, the would-be murderers of Russia and Rumania, the murderers of tens of thousands of civilians and soldiers of our blood and the accomplices in numberless unspeakable crimes committed in this war against humanity by the two degenerate and irresponsible dynasties. We will not remain a part of a state which has no justification for existence, and which, refusing to accept the fundamental principles of modern world organization, remains only an artificial and immoral political structure, hindering every movement toward democratic and social progress. The Hapsburg dynasty, weighed down by a huge inheritance of error and crime, is a perpetual menace to the peace of the world, and we deem it our duty toward humanity and civilization to aid in bringing about its downfall and destruction.

"We reject the sacreligeous assertion that the power of the Hapsburg and Hohenzollern dynasties is of divine origin; we refuse to recognize divine rights of kings. Our nation elevated the Hapsburg to the throne of Bohemia of its own free will, and by that same right deposes them. We hereby declare the Hapsburg dynasty unworthy of leading our nation, and deny all of their claims to rule in the Czecho-Slovak land, which we here and now declare shall henceforth be a free and independent people and nation.

TO FOLLOW AMERICA.

"We accept and shall adhere to the ideals of modern democracy, as they have been the ideals of our nation for centuries. We accept the American principles as laid down by President Wilson; the principles of liberated mankind—of the actual equality of nations—and of governments deriving all their just power from the consent of the governed. We, the nation of Comenius, cannot but accept these principles, expressed in the American Declaration of Independence, the principles of Lincoln and of the declaration of the rights of man and of the citizen. For these principles, our nation shed its blood in the memorable Hussite wars 500 years ago; for these same principles, beside her allies, our nation is shedding its blood today in Russia, Italy and France.

"We shall outline only the main principles of the constitution of the Czecho-Slovak nation; the final decision as to the constitution itself falls to the legally-chosen representatives of the liberated and united people.

"1. The Czecho-Slovak state shall be a republic. In constant endeavor for progress, it will guarantee complete freedom of conscience, religion and science, literature and art, speech, the press and the right of assembly and petition. The church shall be separated from the state. Our democracy shall rest on universal suffrage; women shall be placed on an equal footing with men, politically, socially and culturally. The rights of the minority shall be safeguarded by proportional representation; national minorities shall enjoy equal rights. The government shall be parliamentary in form, and shall recognize the principles of initiative and referendum. The standing army will be replaced by militia.

"The Czecho-Slovak nation will carry out far-reaching social and economic reforms; the large estates will be redeemed for home colonization; patents of nobility will be abolished. Our nation will assume its part of the Austro-Hungarian prewar public debt; the debts for this war we leave to those who incurred them.

FOREIGN POLICY.

"In its foreign policy the Czecho-Slovak nation will accept its full share of responsibility in the reorganization of Eastern Europe. It accepts fully the democratic and social principle of nationality and subscribes to the doctrine that all covenants and treaties shall be entered into openly and frankly without secret diplomacy.

"Our constitution shall provide an efficient, rational and just government, which will exclude all special privileges and prohibit class legislation.

"Democracy has defeated theocratic autocracy. Militarism is overcome—democracy is victorious—on the basis of democracy mankind will be reorganized. The forces of darkness have served the victory of light—the longed-for age of humanity is dawning.

"We believe in democracy; we believe in liberty—and liberty evermore.

"Given in Paris on the eighteenth of October, 1918.

Several Reasons for Germany's Plea for Armistice.

Photo shows enemy heavy artillery which have fired their last shell for "kultur," being now in possession of the Allies, who have captured more than 5000 cannon since July 18. The climax to the capture of big guns came with the fall of Cambrai, where enormous quantities of guns and munitions were taken. Shortage of artillery of all calibers caused by Allied captures is the principal reason given by military authorities for the continued disasters which have overtaken the Teuton armies in the past three months.

ANOTHER NOTE EXPECTED.

Capital Assumes Berlin will Try Again to Bargain Before Surrender.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Little new information reached Washington today about developments in Germany, upon which will depend the nature and time of the next move toward peace. The situation apparently is what it has been for several days. The Germans are hastening their constitutional and electoral reforms in the hope of presenting a government with which the United States and the Allies will deal in restoring permanent peace, while conferences proceed on the question of how far the military machine shall go toward meeting conditions precedent to consideration of the plea for the ardently-desired armistice.

There is no evidence here of great disappointment over the failure of a new note to come from Berlin as quickly as persistent reports have indicated it might be expected. In fact, when President Wilson's reply to Prine Maximilian was dispatched it was assumed considerable time must elapse before the Germans would be heard from again, in view of the virtual demand for an unconditional surrender, the hour for which no one here was ready to predict had come. Of course, it also was assumed at least one more trial at bargaining was to be expected, so another note is looked for as soon as those in power at Berlin decide they are in a position to make a proposal likely either to receive consideration or to cause a rift in the Allied camp and strengthen the situation at home.

The attitude of Washington is one of confident waiting for the break that ultimately must come, even though another winter and spring campaign may be necessary. Everyone is watching the western front. The great retreat of the Germans there is being carried out without demoralization, indicating that discipline and fight still is left in the Kaiser's war machine.

It is realized that a successful stand before the German borders are reached may govern the tone of the next diplomatic communication, and give the war lords another period of grace.

What is happening in Austria-Hungary is observed with interest, though regarded as of secondary importance. Emperor Charles's proclamation of federalization of Austria, officials remarked today, is a step in the right direction, though it does not change the situation materially. Federalization cannot save the dual monarchy.

In the first place, the Allies are committed to actual independence of the Czecho-Slovaks, constituting a very large part of Austria, and in the second the Hungarians, now holding the upper hand in the dual monarchy and showing no disposition to relinquish their position, have been the chief offenders in the oppression of subject nationalities.

Even as word was coming of the Emperor's proclamation, the Czecho-Slovak national council was presenting to President Wilson a formal declaration of independence issued today in Paris.

AUSTRIA'S WEAKNESS.

An important weakness noted in the Emperor's desperate effort to save his throne is his determination to keep the Austrian Poles out of an independent Poland. The Austrian Poles are as determined to join their fellow-countrymen in establishing an independent government as the Czecho-Slovaks are of becoming entirely free. The Jugo-Slavs do not want autonomy under Hapsburg rule. Rumania is crying out to the world for reunion, not "restoration." This would leave Germany, Austria and Magyar-Hungary with the latter apparently in the saddle, to constitute the empire.

The situation of Rumania with regard to Transylvania and Bukowina is attracting attention to the Entente statesmen in consideration of the pending dissolution of the Austrian empire. Ninety per cent or more of the people of Transylvania are Rumanian by descent and sympathy. They once were part of Rumania and have been oppressed by the Hungarians for generations. They are not allowed a representative vote on any question; Rumanian schools in the district have been abolished in an effort to crush any national feeling.

Capt. Vasile Stoica, president of the Rumanian National Council of America, said today one word of encouragement to the Rumanian people from the United States again would align the nation in the war against the Central Powers. The country is looking to America for the restoration of Transylvania to the mother country, upon the principle enunciated by President Wilson of the self-determination of peoples.

HUNS REFUSE TO FIGHT.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 18. — It has been learned that in the neighborhood of Heule and Cuerne, north of Courtrai, entire regiments flatly refused to fight, although threatened with severe punishment by their officers. These regiments finally retired in a body.

From prisoners, especially officers, similar evidence is being obtained constantly. The officers of the Twentieth Dragoon Regiment of the crack Sixth Cavalry Division, which had been dismounted and fought as infantry, say that the spirit of the men was broken principally because instead of getting a rest after their hard fighting they had again been sent into battle.

"Peace talk" is also said to be having a demoralizing effect on the morale of the men, gradually breaking down their will to resist.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. — Unless peace can be restored "upon terms that will change the mental attitude of the German people toward its own master and toward the rest of the world," the war will have been fought in vain, Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey, said tonight at the Liberty Loan rally at Cooper Union.

"I regard this as the fundamental point in the whole international situation," he added. "At present the German people possess a philosophy of life that takes its roots in hell. Unless they discard this and bring their thinking into line with that of enlightened nations, we will have obtained not an end to this war, but merely a truce."

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Following the repudiation of its liabilities by its founder, Jacob H. Brush, the Santa Rosa National Bank, which closed its doors on September 30, is to go into the hands of a receiver today. W. E. Wilcox, national bank examiner, here, announced.

Brush's son, Frank A. Brush, cashier, and William C. Grant and H. K. Loughery, assistant cashiers of the bank, were charged in Federal warrants recently with the embezzlement of $725,208 of the bank's funds.

Yesterday the elder Brush announced that he had declined to turn over approximately $800,000 of his personal property to make good the alleged embezzlement.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Capture by the Americans of 1000 additional prisoners in the fighting west of the Meuse was reported in Gen. Pershing's communique for yesterday, received today at the War Department.

There was severe fighting on the entire front of Gen. Liggett's First Army.

The statement follows:

"Section A. Severe fighting has continued on the entire front of the First Army. We have broken up counter-attacks in the Bois de la Grange, Montagne and in the vicinity of Champigneulle and the Bois de Solges. Our troops have taken and passed beyond Grandpre and have improved their positions throughout the line."

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN (via London) Oct. 18.—The German official communication issued this evening follows:

"Between Le Cateau and the Oise renewed attempts by the enemy to break through failed.

"The day was quieter on the Meuse where the Americans are fighting."

AIRPLANE OBSERVERS NEEDED BY PERSHING.

OPPORTUNITY OFFERED ALL WHO CAN QUALIFY TO GET ACTIVE SERVICE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Gen. Pershing has sent an urgent call for air service observers which the aeronautical bureau of the army is making prompt efforts to fill from civil life, as well as from the army. There is no limit in the number to be accepted for training, and qualified men are certain to get quick action.

In announcing the needs of the expeditionary forces today, Maj.-Gen. Kenly, chief of the bureau, said there were no rigid age limits or other limitations. It is up to the man himself. If he thinks he can stand the hard, dangerous service and can pass the rigorous physical and other tests, he will be given a twelve weeks' training course, commissioned and sent over.

"This is a quick chance to kill a Hun or get killed," Gen. Kenly said. "We will guarantee to get men who qualify to France without delay."

Gen. Kenly made public a letter from Gen. Pershing to the chief of the American air service in France which doubtless refers to the great air raid north of Verdun in which 350 machines, probably a majority of which were American, took part.

For military reasons, no details of the operations could be made public here, but the letter, which explains itself, follows:

"Please accept my sincere congratulations on the successful and very important part taken by the air forces under your command in the first offensive of the first American Army. The organization and control of the tremendous concentration of the air forces, including American, French, British and Italian units, which has enabled the air service of the First Army to carry out so successfully its dangerous and important mission, is as fine a tribute to you personally as is the courage and nerve shown by your officers a signal proof of the high morale which permeates the service under your command.

"Please convey to your command my heartfelt appreciation of their work, I am proud of you all."

ALLIED FORCES OCCUPY ZEEBRUGGE

LONDON, Oct. 18 (via Montreal.) Zeebrugge, the port of Bruges, and the second important German submarine base on the Belgian coast, has been occupied by Allied forces.

Bruges, seven miles south of Zeebrugge, has been evacuated by the Germans, according to information received at the Belgian army headquarters.

The town of Blankenberghe, on the Belgian coast southwest of Zeebrugge, was occupied by Allied forces today.

Some of the German garrison failed to get away from Ostend. The men were handed over to the Allied forces by the civilian population.

In the area between Bruges and the sea large captures of Germans are not expected as the sector has been lightly held by the enemy.

It developed today that King Albert flew over Ostend when it was still occupied by the Germans.

Admiral Keyes's entry into Ostend yesterday was made in the course of operations designed to clear up the military situation between Nieuport and Ostend, which was obscure, the Admiralty announced today. The naval force withdrew when the Germans, who were not clear of the town, began shelling the warships.

The withdrawal was for the purpose of saving the lives of civilians and also avoiding further bombardment of the town by the Germans, as German shells were falling close to a crowd of excited inhabitants.

The text of the Admiralty statement reads:

"Admiral Keyes reports that on the morning of Thursday the military situation between Nieuport and Ostend was obscure. It seemed uncertain whether the enemy had withdrawn from the coast. Up to then no fires had been started by him either in Middelkerke or Ostend.

"A division of destroyers reconnoitered the coast, assisted by aircraft. They arrived off Ostend at 11 o'clock, at which hour one of our aircraft landed on the beach, where large crowds of the inhabitants had assembled.

"I proceeded into the harbor in a whaler and landed about 11:30, meeting with a great reception. The enemy at the time was not clear of the town and a light battery at Le Coq opened fire at the ships. Two shells, falling on the beach, close to a crowd, excited the inhabitants.

"A heavy battery of four guns in the direction of Zeebrugge opened fire on the destroyers, and as it seemed possible the presence of the naval forces might lead to the bombardment of Ostend or to more shells falling on the town, where they would endanger the lives of civilians, I decided to withdraw the naval force and thus give the enemy no excuse for firing toward the town.

"I therefore re-embarked and the destroyers withdrew, being heavily shelled, to just east of Middelkerke. Four motor launches were left at Ostend as an inshore patrol, the inhabitants being nervous of the Germans returning.

"The King and Queen of the Belgians expressed the wish to visit Ostend either from the sea or the air. In view of the difficulty of landing and the uncertainty of the situation they proceeded in the destroyer Termagant, flying the Belgian flag at the main, to the vicinity of Ostend.

"The senior officer of the British motor launch patrol off Ostend, which had been reinforced by French motor launches, reported that all had been quiet for some hours.

"Their Majesties, therefore, landed and proceeded to the Hotel De Ville (Town Hall.) They were received everywhere with indescribable enthusiasm. They returned to Dunkirk about 10 o'clock at night.

"The British naval forces suffered no damage and no casualties."

CAMP LEWIS BARS ALL WIVES OF SOLDIERS.

INFLUENZA QUARANTINE GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY FOR INDEFINITE PERIOD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAMP LEWIS (Tacoma) Oct. 18.—Hundreds of wives in Tacoma, Seattle and other near-by cities and towns tomorrow will feel all the pangs of war widowhood, notwithstanding that their husbands are stationed at Camp Lewis, but a few miles from them. Today scores of these wives and other relatives and friends of soldiers who are training here came to camp to bid farewells and to visit for what will be the last time for a period yet to be determined while the camp is quarantined against Spanish influenza. The quarantine begins tomorrow.

Soldiers will be forbidden to visit outside camp except in Greens Park, the Tacoma Country Club and the territory between American and Gravelly Lakes, where the families of many soldiers reside.

More than 1000 cases of influenza have developed here during the last week, but are less virulent than some found in adjacent cities.

One hundred and fifty-four new cases of influenza were reported in camp today. The highest mark reached was 212 new cases, October 12. There were thirty-five new cases of pneumonia and four deaths. Yesterday twelve deaths were reported, all from pneumonia.

BAR NEBRASKA WOMEN FROM CASTING VOTES.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Oct. 18.—Oct. 18.—Nebraska women will not vote at the coming election, November 5, under the suffrage law granting them partial voting rights, according to an order entered in District Court here today.

The order was issued by District Judge L. A. Flansburg in passing opinion in the suit filed by suffragists to prevent the Secretary of State from submitting the suffrage law to a referendum vote for approval or rejection at the coming election.

The referendum was sought by anti-suffragists.

While temporary injunction restraining submission of the referendum was granted the suffragists by today's order, the judge held that operations of the suffrage law would be suspended until a final judgment was given by the court, or by the voters at some election other than that of November 5.

In their suit the suffragists charged that a petition circulated by antisuffragist workers asking for the referendum vote, contained voters' signatures that were not genuine.

The court in its decision held this allegation apparently was true, but added that inasmuch as only evidence from the plaintiffs had been heard the defense should be given a chance to disprove the charge before final judgment was rendered.

ASK PROFESSIONAL MEN TO ASSIST AS NURSES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The scarcity of nurses is so great in this city that, to deal with the Spanish influenza epidemic, Health Commissioner Copeland tonight appealed to business and professional men to volunteer to work in night shifts in the hospitals.

At a meeting of the Woman's Emergency Committee, an appeal for nurses was read from Governor's Island Hospital, where it was said there was but one trained nurse to care for hundreds of soldiers suffering from influenza.

COLLAPSE NEAR FOR HUN AR

Retreat may Develop Rout at Any Time.

Road to Brussels Open Advancing Rapidly.

Lille, Douai, Ostend Delivered Glorious Day.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Lille, Douai, Ostend, three great cities have been delivered from the enemy, the most glorious day for [illegible] since the battle of the Marne fittingly terminates a wonderful [illegible] of three months, which opened by Gen. Mangin's [illegible] counter offensive on July 18.

While it may be said that the Germans are fighting a rear guard action, conducting their retreat with great skill, sober military opinion holds that the great German war machine is in danger of collapse in the very distant future.

Many cities have been taken and hundreds of square miles of territory retaken. The results have been splendid. But the situation in Belgium is not all. The French south of Le Catesu have driven into the German position and threaten the Hunding line. The whole German defense system is backward to the Meuse is in jeopardy.

The first result of the new drive by the Germans back to the line of the Tournai-Valenciennes railway, yesterday's fighting has forced the enemy's defenses in front of Lens to be abandoned and have been able to reach positions further south. Without question it may be said that the situation in the future are even more favorable than the actual results achieved.

The road to Brussels is open, according to latest advices, and the British and Belgian armies are advancing rapidly towards Bruges and Ostend. The capture of Ostend would enable to land reinforcements to throw powerful forces against the extreme right of the German army.

Gen. Von Arnim's army is still in sufficiently strong enough to give battle in positions on the extended line from the French to the Dutch frontier, and will, therefore, reasonable to expect, make its march across Belgium as rapid and that King Albert will soon enter his capital earlier than was hoped.

At the very moment that the battle was won another battle was started in the region of Hirson and Vervins, by the American and French forces. The object is to take the enemy's Crown Prince, under the command of Handing line, on the Serre river. The situation there is not clear in many respects, however, due to the swiftly changing nature of the fighting. Pursuing cavalry may upset the whole German schedule and cause a disastrous result.

FRENCH CLEAN POCKET.

Reports showing that the French were making progress in the region of the Oise-Serre pocket, between Laon, attracted particular attention here. This narrow gap, 12 miles of high ground between the two rivers, guarded by wide marshy valleys, lines on both fronts, has appeared to be the position on which the strongest resistance in the center would be made. It has been regarded as impossible of retention for any great length of time, but is subject to a concentrated bombardment by heavy guns that eventually would force the evacuation. The enemy made a desperate counter, however, a part of the line to hold up the general advance in the center.

The collapse of this position presumably means a rapid straightening of the whole center of the front. The capture of this vital part of the line, American troops northwest of Verdun and Anglo-American troops at Le Cateau are hammering their way ahead toward the main communication lines that support the enemy framework. This [illegible] accounts for the stubborn resistance on both wings as compared with that encountered elsewhere it was said.

U-BOATS UNAFFECTED.

The loosening of the Belgian Coast has very little direct effect on the submarine situation, but may be of the greatest indirect value in furthering the Allied forces with new bases from which to operate anti-submarine patrols. The German U-boats on the Flanders coast are a thing of the past ever since the harbors were blocked by the British naval forces, which undoubtedly had a share in convincing the high command of the wisdom of quitting that territory.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Lille, Douai and Ostend, three great cities, have been delivered from the enemy. This is the most glorious day for the Allies since the battle of the Marne and fittingly terminates a wonderful battle of three months, which was opened by Gen. Mangin's victorious counter offensive on July 18.

While it may be admitted that the Germans are fighting with consummate skill, sober military opinion believes that the great German military machine is in danger of collapse at no very distant date.

Many cities have been liberated and hundreds of square miles of territory retaken. The results have been splendid. But the victory in Belgium is not all. The battle south of Le Catenu have broken into the German positions and threaten the Hunding line, the whole German defense system westward to the Meuse is in peril.

The first result of the fighting the Germans back to the Tournai-Valenciennes line. In yesterday's fighting has been to the enemy's defenses before they have been able to reach their south. Without exaggeration it may be said that the prospects of the future are even more important than the actual results attained.

The road to Brussels is open. According to latest advices the French and Belgian armies are advancing rapidly towards Bruges and Ghent. The capture of Ostend makes it possible to land reinforcements and throw powerful forces against the extreme right of the German army.

Gen. Von Arnim's army is no longer strong enough to sustain operations on the extended front from the French to the Dutch frontier. It is therefore, reasonable to expect that its march across Belgium will be rapid and that King Albert will soon enter his capital earlier than was hoped.

At the very moment the Flanders battle was won another victory was started in the direction of Hirson and Vervins, by American and French forces. The object is to take the armies of the Crown Prince, under shelter of the Hunding line, on the flank and to demn them to an early retreat ward the Ardennes and destruction of the powerful Allied right wing.

FORD AS SENATOR TO FIGHT ALL MILITARISM.

DECLARES HE WANTS TO SERVE TO HELP WILSON AND TAFT'S LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

DETROIT, Oct. 17.—Henry Ford has taken a more definite position in regard to his willingness to serve as United States Senator, if elected, than he had previously given, the medium of his announcement being a letter to George M. Holley of this city.

Mr. Holley, in a letter to Mr. Ford said he found a public impression that the automobile king is being forced to run and is not really anxious to be elected. Mr. Ford replied in part as follows:

"You are certainly at liberty to say to your friends and others that I will be very glad to serve as Senator of Michigan, if elected. Furthermore, that there are a great number of great problems that will arise at the close of the war in which the world is deeply interested and which I would much like to help the President and Congress to solve.

"First and foremost, there is the great question of a league of nations to prevent all future wars, so strongly advocated by President Wilson and ex-President Taft. It seems to me that certain powerful interests and politicians are getting ready to fight this plan and to put this nation on a great permanent military basis instead. I should like to help settle this question right and, if elected Senator would favor the plan now advocated by Wilson and Taft.

"Other mighty questions will arise concerning the reconstruction of our industries after the war. The rehabilitation of our industrial relations on a peace basis after the war is over—the taking care of our millions of returned soldiers, many of them maimed and crippled for life.

"All these and many other important subjects will engage our best most sincere and unselfish thought for the good of all our people. I should be very glad to participate in such capacity as the people may decide."

ARIZONA PREPARES TO BATTLE INFLUENZA.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, Oct. 18.—Last evening at a representative gathering at the Capitol called by the Governor, there was agreement that preparation should be ordered at once by the State Board of Health for a possible influenza epidemic in every locality of the State.

The Supervisors and health officers of each county will be ordered to prepare at least one fifty-bed hospital and to insist upon hospital treatment for sufferers.

Lack of physicians is the most alarming feature. The Monroe grammar school will be converted into a hospital at once, though the situation here is not considered serious.

The Arizona State Fair has been postponed from November 11 to December 2, following a conference of the fair directors with the Maricopa County Medical Society. If the influenza situation fails to clear within a month it is believed the fair will be abandoned for the year.

Similar action has been taken with the Northern Arizona Fair at Prescott.

SECOND ATTACHE DIES AT BRITISH EMBASSY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Major the Hon. Charles Lyell, principal aide to Maj.-Gen. MacLachlan, military attache of the British embassy, died here today of an embolism following an attack of Spanish influenza. He was the second member of the embassy staff to fall a victim to the scourge, Capt. Angus MacIntosh died Sunday.

Maj. Lyell, though only 42 years of age, had been a member of Parliament and served as Parliamentary private secretary to Sir Edward Grey and to Mr. Asquith.

As a soldier, he served in France, where he suffered from severe shell shock, which led to his detachment and assignment to Washington.

Burial will be at Arlington National Cemetery next Monday.

It was stated that six men had been taken from the train at Vancouver, suffering with influenza.

The men will be given a medical examination tomorrow, it was stated, and placed in quarantine in the barracks of the school.

Another contingent of 100 are expected from California points tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Lord Sydenham, British authority on fortications, in a message received here today by Maj.-Gen. Kenly, director of military aeronautics, says:

"We can bring Germany to terms by air forces, that is certain."

ALLIES UNIFY WAR DIPLOMACY

the situation and that Vienna, at least, has concluded that President Wilson's propositions afford a basis for the commencement of peace negotiations.

The willingness of Austria-Hungary to comply with these demands, it was said by Entente diplomats, would of itself force Germany to address the United States afresh, but it was said Germany might delay because of a desire to learn what different proposals President Wilson might present to Austria-Hungary.

BERLIN SEES END.

With her armies everywhere in retreat and critically menaced with catastrophe in Belgium, Germany realizes, it is believed, the extent of her impending defeat, unless she succeeds in obtaining a compromise. It begins to look as if the German government has now taken the tack of attempting to win the approval and sympathy of the Allies as a precedent to a continuation of the negotiations.

The failure of the evacuating Huns to burn Lille is looked on here as a probable result of orders from the German government, following the President's notification that no armistice could be considered so long as the German army and navy continue to commit atrocities and inhumanities.

The report that the German government has taken the power of declaration of war out of the hands of the Kaiser and lodged it in the Federal Council and Reichstag, except when the empire is invaded or its coasts attacked, is regarded as a move to convince the Allies that the Prussian war lords are to be made incapable of committing another aggression on peaceful nations.

There is no longer any doubt that the communication to Austria-Hungary will inform that government of the recognition by the United States of the sympathy of the United States for the oppressed nationalities of the dual monarchy and of the action taken by America in recognizing the Czecho-Slovak National Council as the supreme political authority of Bohemia and Slovakia.

TO FEDERALIZE AUSTRIA.

I have tried to make it my duty to assure to all my peoples the peace so ardently desired and to point the way to the Austrian peoples of a prosperous development unhampered by obstacles which brutal forces created against intellectual and economic prosperity.

"The terrible struggles in the world war have thus far made the work of peace impossible. The heavy sacrifices of the war should assure to us an honorable peace, on the threshold of which, by the help of God, we are today.

"We must, therefore, undertake without delay the reorganization of our country on a natural, and therefore, solid, basis. Such a question demands that the desires of the Austrian peoples be harmonized and realized.

"I am decided to accomplish this work with the free collaboration of my peoples in the spirit and principles which our allied monarchs have adopted in their offer of peace.

"Austria must become, in conformity with the will of its people, a confederate state in which each nationality shall form on the territory which it occupies its own local autonomy.

"This does not mean that we are already envisaging the union of the Polish territories of Austria with the independent Polish state.

"The city of Trieste with all its surroundings shall, in conformity with the desire of its population, be treated separately."

FOE TO CUT BELGIAN DIKE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The Germans are preparing to inundate the low-lying lands south of the River Scheldt, in Eastern Belgium, a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam reports. The inhabitants have been ordered to abandon their homes immediately.

Belgian cavalry is pressing the retreating enemy on the Flanders front today, with the object of cutting off his retreat. The British artillery is following up and carrying out a vigorous bombardment, with the same object.

From the Scarpe to the Lys the process of flattening out the German line continues, and many interesting developments may be expected shortly. The fall of Roubaix probably will follow that of Turcoing. The line from Turcoing now runs southward along the Lille-Doual Railroad.

Indications are that the Germans are about to evacuate the pocket between the Serre and the Oise, north of La Fere.

Between the Sensee Canal and the Lys River the British are continuing their advance on the whole front.

Turcoing, a city six miles north of Lille, has been entered by the British troops, according to the Evening News.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The German retreat begun Wednesday under the irresistible pressure of the group of armies under command of the King of the Belgians, continued today along the whole of the front between the North Sea and the River Lys.

By this evening the advance had been carried forward to a depth of twenty kilometers over a front of fifty kilometers.

The Belgian army had entered Ostend and their cavalry was at the gates of Bruges. Belgian cavalry occupied Inglemunster.

In the Belgian-French zone, Meulebeke and Wynghene had been captured.

Further south the British Second Army occupied the line of the Lys north of Courtral. South the British have crossed the river and reached the outskirts of Turcoing.

HUN REMNANTS DIE HARD.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES, Oct. 19.—Although the German divisions are shot to pieces, it does not hinder their remnants being thrown in in large enough numbers to man thousands of machine guns. One of our regiments took prisoners from five German divisions, or rather what used to be divisions.

These operations, made of necessity, follow so fast that even prisoners do not know who are their company commanders. They are imbued with the idea the war is all but over. They have been told the Kaiser's terms would not be refused, by that the armistice was about to be signed, but that they must make a last gradid stand to get the best terms for the Fatherland. So far as the Germans in front of Pershing's men are concerned, they certainly are obeying that order.

FIRES SPREAD IN BRUGES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 18.—Huge fires have been seen in the direction of Bruges, reports from Flushing say. The flames are spreading. It is also reported that Zeebrugge is partly in flames.

The outbreak of the fires was accompanied by terrific explosions, suggesting that the Germans are destroying munition dumps and hangars.

WOMEN LEGALLY WEAR MEN'S GARB.

LINCOLN (Neb.) Oct. 18.—Neither the law of God nor the law of man—at least in Nebraska—prevents women from wearing men's clothes when they are engaged in war work, Atty.-Gen. W. E. Reed ruled today.

Attorney Reed's opinion was given to Rev. W. B. Longpre of Maxwell, Neb., who wrote Gov. Keith Neville a letter saying the wearing of men's garments by women is against Bible doctrine and asking if it was contrary to State law.

Gov. Neville put the question up to the State's legal adviser and the opinion followed.

SAYS PRESENT WHEAT ACREAGE SUFFICIENT.

BARNES BELIEVES FURTHER EXTENSION UNNECESSARY AND UNWISE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. — Not even Kruezen, or new beer for carbonizing old beer, can be brewed after December 1, under a ruling announced today by Food Administrator Hoover and Fuel Administrator Garfield.

Julius H. Barnes, president of the Food Administration's Grain Corporation, believes that further extension of wheat acreage would be unnecessary and unwise. In a letter today to Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Mr. Barnes said a fair yield from the present large acreage, with any peace developments opening new sources of supply would necessitate Congressional appropriation to make effective the present price guarantee.

HUNS ANXIOUS NOW TO GET OUT

Move Faster Leaving than in Entering Belgium.

Liberated Population Celebrates in Lille Streets.

Smiling Refugees Following Troops on Way Home.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 18.—The speed with which the German armies are retreating from Belgium and Northern France makes it appear that they are twice as anxious to get out now as they were to get in four years ago. The country, freed from the Huns, today is wild with joy.

In Lille the population celebrated throughout last night, shooting fireworks and dancing in the streets, while whole streams of old and young women and elderly men paraded around arm in arm singing the "Marseillaise." The soldiers and official photographers were smothered with kisses and babies by the score were held up to be kissed by the British soldiers.

Every street in the city, which shows no outward signs of war, was bedecked with the colors of the Allies, especially with the British union jack, on which was written: "Glory to our liberators!" The citizens explained that they had kept the flags well hidden in their houses specially for this occasion, for which they had been waiting four years and were certain would come sooner or later.

Flowers plucked from nearby fields and roses from gardens were thrown into automobiles and pressed upon every man wearing the British uniform.

The fighting British troops did not sweep through the city, but passed on each side of it in hot pursuit of the Germans, the last of whom cleared out at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, after blowing up the bridges on the other side of the town. This was a useless proceeding because the British troops did not need them. They went outside the city because they had no desire to give the Germans the slightest excuse for bombarding it after they were forced to leave.

Scenes similar to those in Lille were repeated everywhere over the vast stretches of territory wrested from the Germans. All the roads in the rear now contain the familiar carts of refugees, on which are the usual household goods and babies. But these wagons looked strange. The men, women and children with them are laughing and smiling as they hurry to get back to their homes. The last time they traveled these roads they were going in the other direction, fleeing in terror from the enemy.

ALL PARIS ACCLAIMS THE TIGER OF FRANCE.

CLEMENCEAU, WITH DUST OF LILLE ON GARMENTS TELLS OF GREAT VICTORIES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 18.—"Our victory does not spell revenge," said Premier Clemenceau amid scenes of indescribable enthusiasm in the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon. "Our victory and the victory of our Allies means the liberation of civilization and liberty of human conscience."

Paris has lived historic days since the beginning of the war, but never since those dark days of August, 1914, has Paris lived such a day as this. M. Clemenceau looked the Tiger of old when he ascended the tribune, the light of victory shining on his whole countenance.

Long before the hour set for the opening of the chamber huge crowds overflowing across the Seine to the Place de la Concorde, had gathered. Every seat in the chamber was occupied, except those where the French flag showed that the former occupant had died, that he had served his country not alone in the Chamber of Deputies, but on the field of battle.

After Paul Deschanel, president of the Chamber, told of the liberation of Lille, Douai, Ostend and Bruges, and while the deputies and audience were cheering frantically, Clemenceau arose from the government bench and made his way to the tribune with the dust of Lille still clinging to his garments.

SCHOONER TO TRY TO TAKE ALASKANS FOOD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SEATTLE, Oct. 18.—Miners of the Kuskokwim district of Alaska, said to be running short of food, may yet be supplied by the schooner Ruby, which is to sail in a few days in an effort to reach Goodnews Bay, near Kuskokwim Bay, before the ice closes in.

The Ruby is now at Seward, Alaska. A crew left here last night to take her west to Goodnews Bay. If she doesn't reach the bay, the supplies will be stored at Unalaska and taken to the Kuskokwim next spring.

LOBSTER FISHING IS REPORTED O.K.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, Oct. 18.—Lobster fishing is better this year than for several seasons back. Nor does this refer to the kind usually found in gilded cafes sipping frothy champagne.

Owing to a lack of phosphorus in the water, the catch of crustaceans has been very good and the fishermen are coming in every morning with their lobster pots full.

Other fishing has been getting better for the past week and the deep-sea fishing is improving.

TANKS COMPEL HUNS TO FLEE TO SCHELDT.

SEEKS WATER LINE TO STOP ALLIES' ADVANCE; FOCH WILL DICTATE NEXT MOVE.

BY MAJ.-GEN. SIR FREDERICK B. MAURICE.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
[Copyright.]

LONDON, Oct. 17. (Delayed.)—The comparatively rapid and easy progress which King Albert's group of armies is making in Belgium is one of the results of the victories won farther south. It has been apparent for some time that the Germans were not strong enough to hold their old lines in Flanders and would have to abandon the coast and leave Lille.

I expect they will endeavor to draw back their right bank to the Dutch frontier north of Ghent and that between Ghent and Tournai they will fall back behind the Scheldt which will give them a water line to hold against our tanks.

Such a line they would probably try to connect by way of Orchies and Denain with their present front near Le Cateau, and they may be able to stand there until Foch dictated to them their next move.

The enemy remains under the imperative necessity of shortening his front and this he has been prevented from doing because his line is continually being extended by salients which we have created in it. Until he succeeds in shortening it he must continue to retreat.

Foch has very skilfully defeated the obvious attempt of the enemy to force us to destroy Lille with our guns. More than ten days ago the Germans abandoned to us positions west and southwest of Lille from which our guns could completely dominate the town. He held onto inner lines of defenses connecting old French forts hoping that we should engage in a direct attack on the town which would cause it serious damage.

Instead of this he has been manoeuvered out of Lille by King Albert's advance on Ghent and if he has done any damage to Lille he will doubtless be made to foot the bill.

MILITARY DEFICIENCY BILL GOES TO SENATE.

KITCHEN WILL TRY TO HAVE HOUSE MARK TIME UNTIL UPPER HOUSE ACTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The $6,000,000,000 military deficiency bill was passed today by the House without a dissenting vote and sent to the Senate in practically the same form that it came from the Appropriations Committee.

Besides providing vast sums for the War Department, the bill also provides $107,217,000 for the navy and $70,000,000 for the war risk insurance bureau to pay allotments to families of soldiers and sailors.

In anticipation of final action on the bill tonight, Representative Kitchin, the Democratic leader, announced that he would endeavor to bring about another series of three-day recesses in the House, beginning probably tomorrow and continuing until October 29, the date proposed for the beginning of the joint recess until after the November elections.

ALL LILLE IN JOY DELIRIUM.

City's Population Welcomes Messengers of Allies.

Town not Greatly Damaged; Many People Remain.

Mayor's Son is First French Soldier to Arrive.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Oct. 18.—"I have just witnessed the most touching spectacle of my life. The whole city, in a delirium of joy, was ready to throw itself upon us, the first to enter Lille," telegraphs the war correspondent of the Petit Journal.

"Tonight at 9 o'clock, near Armentieres, an officer shouted to us, 'Lille is taken.' We speeded our automobile on the road to victory. Two miles from Lille two young girls ran out in front of our automobile, crying amid sobs of joy, 'They have gone, they have gone. Vivent les Anglais, viva la France.'

"We went a little further and then a huge shell hole obliged us to abandon our machine and proceed on foot.

"A hack appeared and we got in, but a crowd, every member of which was weeping, seized us. One man climbed on our shoulders.

REFUSED BRIBE.

"Another shouted to us, 'My name is Guiselin.' I am city councillor. The Germans offered me a million to betray my country. The cowards! The cowards!' and then he burst into sobbing.

"Carried by the crowd, we arrived at the City Hall. Deputy Mayor Baudon stood at the door. When we entered every one rushed to embrace us. An old man with white hair stood with a violin at the top of the grand staircase and played the 'Marseillaise.' Outside the crowd seethed like a sea. We were the first messengers from the motherland.

"'Speak, speak to us!' they cried. We opened the windows and told of our victory. A shout went up that filled the city. We told of the Bulgarian capitulation. Again the cheers rang out. We told of the Turkish promise to quit the war and again the crowd cheered.

"Then we told them that President Wilson had refused to grant an armistice and demanded Emperor William's head. The crowd, in a frenzy, tossed everything it could lay hands on into the air.

"At the prefecture the acting prefect, M. Regnier, embraced us and there was a fresh outburst of cheering from the crowd. It was for Mayor Delsalle and for his son, a French officer of the Legion of Honor and wearing the war cross. This officer, an aviator, heard at 11 o'clock that the city had been freed. He leaped into his machine, flew quickly to Lille and landed in the Place de Theater. Alighting, he rushed home to his family.

"His was the first French uniform the liberated citizens had seen, and the sight of it increased their delirium of joy. There remain 120,000 inhabitants in Lille. The Germans had carried off all the male population more than 14 years of age. The city is not greatly damaged and the public buildings are intact."

PEOPLE SING IN STREETS.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Oct. 18.—(Reuter's.) Left to their own devices during most of yesterday, the inhabitants of Lille made it a gala day to celebrate their emancipation.

It is estimated that 40,000 men, women and children flocked the streets, displaying amazing wealth, buying flowers and singing patriotic songs.

On the whole, the people do not show any physical traces of having undergone serious hardships.

Although at times the people were pinched for food, there has been nothing approaching famine conditions in Lille. Outwardly the city bears a normal-enough appearance, but a complete investigation has not been made. The shops are open and appear to be well stocked.

INFLUENZA SPREADS OVER BUENOS AIRES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 18.—There are 200,000 cases of influenza in Buenos Aires. The medical authorities say that the disease is not Spanish influenza. There have been no deaths from it.

Several of the newspapers of the city announce that they will be forced to suspend publication because of the depletion in the ranks of their employees. Four hundred employees of the central postoffice and 1500 clerks in one department store and one-half of the policemen of the city are ill.

Reports received from Chile indicate that an extremely grave epidemic exists there, with a large death rate.

In some neighborhoods of Santiago, Chili, deaths number three out of every ten persons affected.

Buenos Aires has a population of approximately 1,500,000. Thanks to the city's excellent drainage system, epidemics have been virtually unknown in recent years.

MEXICAN HOME GUARDS WHIP FEDERAL TROOPS

JUAREZ (Mex.) Oct. 18.—Home guards near Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, were the first to resist the recent order of Gen. Murguia, commandeering all horses and mules in the State of Chihuahua.

At a meeting of the ranchers and home guards it was voted to resist the confiscation order and a detachment of home guards started in pursuit of the Federals driving their horses into Santa Rosalia.

FRENCH BISHOP TELLS OF RUINED CHURCHES.

MORE THAN 300 DESTROYED IN DIOCESE OF ARRAS UNNECESSARILY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Destruction by the Germans of more than 300 churches in his own diocese "for which there was no military necessity" was described here today by the Right Rev. Eugene Louis Julien, bishop of Arras, who with British and French dignitaries, is on his way to Baltimore to felicitate Cardinal Gibbons on the fiftieth anniversary of his consecration to the episcopate.

"I am glad to know that France and America are of one opinion in their determination to bring Germany to her knees," the prelate said. "The force of public opinion is assurance to the world its leaders cannot be tricked into a premature peace. 'Unconditional surrender' of Germany is inevitable."

Describing devastation wrought by the enemy the bishop said that before the capture of Bapaume by the British on August 29 the Germans planted clock bombs throughout the city timed to explode when the Allied troops arrived. A French Deputy, a friend of his, he said, was killed by one of these bombs, "thus confirming stories of German violation of the laws of war."

"The French people are delighted with the American soldiers," said Bishop Julien. "They find them brave, enthusiastic, generous, singularly religious and a wonderful example of sincerity and practical piety."

PASS LIE IN LIBEL CASE OF HUNT-BREEN.

COURT RULES OUT TESTIMONY OF ENEMY ALIEN BEING EMPLOYED BY GOVERNOR.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Oct. 18.—The last evidence day of the Hunt-Breen libel case was marked by a passage between County Attorney Laney and Judge E. M. Doe of defendant's counsel. The former declared inadmissible a deposition made by H. G. Lawrence, who had alleged he had heard Gov. Hunt say, "To hell with the war," and alleged bad faith on the part of the defense.

To this Judge Doe retorted, "In saying so you lie." The court then hastily remembered it was time for the noon recess.

Supt. Matthews of the Mesa schools and Asst. Supt. Randall of the Phoenix schools testified that Lawrence had told them practically what he told Editor Breen.

Various matters affecting the I.W.W. members with whom Gov. Hunt was alleged to have been associated went into the record, though not to the jury. The court ruled, also, against introduction of the alien enemy record of Kastner, listed by Chief of Police Brisbois as an alien enemy. It is understood he gave his residence as the Governor's home.

In the argument Attorney Campbell for the defense particularly attacked Gov. Hunt as an individual whose associations might bear out the charge that such language had been used, and harshly assailed the testimony of Private Secretary Lowenthal, alleging that serious discrepancies existed in the stories told by them concerning the visit of Lawrence to the executive offices.

John Dunbar of Dunbar's weekly, a veteran Arizona editor, has been arrested on a Federal indictment charging six violations of the Espionage Act, in the publication of matter designed to injure the sale of government securities. It is understood the charges were pushed by Miss Alice Birdsall, an attorney and head of the State Women's Liberty Bond sales organization. Articles published alleged that the Liberty Bond Committee was composed of "people who like to pose as public-spirited, patriotic citizens, who in truth are only wearing the garments of patriots to disguise their profiteering baseness beneath."

In another column resentment was expressed over the weekly's failure to receive any advertising from the committee.

E. Linsenmeyer, a prosperous butcher, also has been indicted on a similar charge, that he publicly declared that Germany will win the war and that the United States will have a lot of bills to pay.

The Federal grand jury before adjournment announced that many cases considered had features closely approaching sedition and gave warning against careless or unpatriotic utterances.

BISBEE I.W.W. CASES COME UP NEXT MONDAY

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Oct. 18.—Judge William Morrow, who will hear the demurrer to indictments found by the Federal grand jury against twenty-five men as a result of the deportation of more than 1000 striking copper miners and alleged sympathizers, from Bisbee July 12 last year, will arrive here tomorrow from San Francisco. He will hear the arguments next Monday.

The indicted men include capitalists, copper mine operators, public officials and prominent Bisbee citizens. They are charged with conspiracy to deprive citizens of their constitutional rights.

Asst. Atty.-Gen. William C. Fitts, who assisted United States District Attorney Flynn in conducting the grand jury investigation of the deportations, arrived here today from Washington. He will represent the government at the hearings.

CONFER OVER FAIR.

After Dr. A. J. Scott, a member of the medical advisory board, showed officials the gravity of the present influenza situation and several of the city's representative citizens promised to lend their support to the enterprise, the directors of the Liberty Fair yesterday decided to hold the announcement of the date of the exposition in abeyance.

Present at yesterday's meeting, besides the directors of the fair, were former Senator R. M. Bulla, ex-Senator Frank P. Flint, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association and other civic bodies.

R. M. Pridham, director-general of the fair, declared that if the exposition is definitely abandoned a huge monetary loss will ensue, as $132,000 has already been spent in preparing for the event, in addition to $60,000 which has been deposited as premiums.

After the situation had been thoroughly surveyed the officials decided to hold the matter in abeyance until the ban on public gatherings is lifted by the health authorities.

MYSTERY LOOSE ON THE RIALTO

Strangely Familiar Fat Guy is Discovered.

Bares Strange Resemblance to W. H. Pickens.

Believed to Have Plans for the Future.

BY LEEPSON BOWNES.

Sh-h-h-h-h, and likewise ps-s-s-s-t. Mystery surrounds the corner of Fourth and Main streets like gloom clusters at Potsdam. A large, portly personage of hurried manner and genial smile has been seen hithering and thithering in the lobby of the Westminster after an absence of several months. At the hour of going to press we had been unable to confirm the rumor, but it was noised abroad that no less a personage than William Hickman Pickens has oozed into town.—(Adv.)

Exactly what W. Hickman has fluttering around inside his cerebellum we are unable to state, but whatever it is we will guarantee that it is good.

William has a great yearning to keep the American people amused and entertained at 50 cents per head, and it is an acknowledged fact that so far he has succeeded pretty well. And since the war has put automobile racing on the bum, no man knoweth what Bill will spring on us next.

Without having seen William or conversed with him regarding plans for the future, it is a pretty safe bet that he will be first on the ground with a cash offer to Marshal Foch for the skeleton of the Crown Prince for exhibition purposes. It is said that he also contemplates taking a picked squad of German shock troops around the circuit for a series of match races against Barney Oldfield, the Huns on foot and Barney in his Golden Submarine. Barney will be given a handicap.

Private Barrett C. Kiesling of the Ordinance Department of the United States Army, who is probably better remembered locally as "Birdie," writes from the British Isles that he was picked to represent this country in the Allied Nations Track Meet, which took place at Glasgow, Scotland, September 28, 29 and 30. Kiesling used to patter around the track for Pomona College some years ago and later switched his affiliations to Occidental, where he continued to develop great lung power by participating in long-winded debates. Following his rah-rah career, Kiesling continued to develop his bellows by shouting the fame of Bill Clune from the business end of a publicity representative of Clune's Broadway for quite a time. Birdie's letter was written some time previous to the meet, and no details have been received concerning the result, but we'll bet one thing and that is that if Birdie didn't win, it wasn't because he didn't try. He's considerable persistent.

Pete Buzukos floated into the office on the evening breeze last night with a large smile and said that while he hadn't heard directly from Walter Miller, he understood that his arrival in town had caused quite a little scurrying around in the Miller camp. Pete claims that Miller is trying to get the welterweight championship copyrighted so that nobody can wear it but himself. Mr. Buzukos says that since he is also the welterweight champion he doubts if Uncle Sam will allow Miller's patent claim.

DEER HUNTERS GET PLENTY OF SPORT.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 18.—Deer hunters in this county bagged 123 deer during the season just closed, as against 139 reported bagged last year. There were few hunters who secured the limit. In the San Luis Obispo county end of the reserve, seventy deer were bagged, one more than last year. Hunters report that in districts where deer in past seasons were plentiful few are now ever seen, a fact which they attribute to the gradual decrease in the number of deer on the reserves. Quite a few hunters favor closing the season for two or more years, believing deer are becoming extinct.

INFLUENZA SCORES ON THE VARSITIES.

MANY FOOTBALL GAMES CANCELLED, BUT A NUMBER STILL REMAIN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Several of the eastern colleges will endeavor to place football teams on the playing field tomorrow notwithstanding the handicaps incidental to the influenza epidemic and Students' Army Training Corps regulations. Few, if any, of the games originally scheduled will be staged, but in some cases eleventh-hour opponents have been secured in order to provide contests.

Among the contests which appear most likely to be held are the following:

Navy vs. Naval Pay Station of Princeton at Annapolis; Lafayette vs. Ursinus at Easton; Pittsburgh vs. naval training station at Pittsburgh; Washington and Jefferson vs. Camp Sherman at Washington, Pa.; Dartmouth vs. Norwich at Hanover; Brown vs. Rhode Island State at Providence; Penn State vs. Bucknell at State College; Amherst vs. Trinity at Amherst, and Villa Nova vs. League Island Marines, places undecided.

Willie Ritchie, One-Time World's Champion.

The latest athlete of world-wide fame to be floored by the Spanish flu germ is Willie Ritchie, one-time lightweight champion of the world. Willie is at Camp Gordon, Va., and, while his condition is reported serious, he is expected to recover.

WITH THE DUCK SWATTERS.

Today is the big day to bag the duck limits at the local gun clubs. Wednesday was the opening of the season and this is the second day for club members.

Sportsmen who are shooting on their own and not from club blinds will have their innings tomorrow as the activity of the duck clubs will scare the birds from the blinds and the free lances will have an opportunity to fill their bags.

As the sun came up early last Wednesday morning, fifty-seven varieties of machines were found parked along both sides of the road that goes from Seal Beach to Huntington Beach. Each car had brought seven or eight men who had the firm intention of getting twenty-five ducks apiece if they had to stay till nightfall. As each lonely teal or sprig, frightened by the shots from the gun club blinds, attempted to escape by flying across the road, scores of shotguns were pointed at it, and as the bird fell in the road scores of hunters rushed out to claim it. It was a case of the fastest man wins the duck, as the one who could persuade the most effectively got the booty, regardless of his shooting ability.

• • •

Donald Crisp, Lasky director, and Ceph Salisbury from Dyas Company started out early this morning to try their luck at the reservoirs in Antelope Valley. Robert Haggard and Roy Terry will go to Balboa Bay for their birds.

• • •

Lou Mellus, of the Cazadores Gun Club, claimed to have gotten the limit in the record time of twenty minutes last Wednesday. Along comes Joe Amestoy of the Lasmits Club and goes him one better by bagging his twenty-five in fifteen and a half minutes. Mellus promptly challenged Amestoy to a match to come off today, the stakes being a $500 Liberty Bond. All wagers on the outcome of this contest will please follow the patriotic lead and take the form of War Savings Stamps or Thrift Stamps.

• • •

The shooting at Buena Vista Lake is reported to be not up to par. There is too much wind and the ducks are driven inland.

• • •

Orange county is the place to go for good sport in the bird line. The clubs all report many limit bags and that in short order.

CAN GRANDE'S CAST

"We have come to it—once Poe was the living and unique whose things were waited for. . . . Now we watch and wait for Lowell's poems. Success justifies her work. Miss Lowell is—now, between fire and fire, or, in plain fact, between the passion of this particular epoch of letters and the next. Each poem in "Can Grande's Castle" is a real and true poem of power—a work of imagination, a moving and beautiful thing."—Joseph E. Chamberlain in The Boston Transcript.

THOMAS KEARNS DEAD.

Utah's Wealthiest Man, Former Senator, Newspaper Owner, Succumbs from Stroke of Apoplexy.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 18.—Former United States Senator Kearns, mining magnate and railway builder, died at his home here today following a stroke of apoplexy suffered several days ago. Mr. Kearns was struck by an automobile about two weeks ago.

He was 66 years old and is survived by a widow and three children.

The life history of Thomas Kearns reads like a romance. Coming into a practically undeveloped country—the famous Park City, Utah, mining region—thirty-five years ago, with nothing but strength and determination, he delved into the hidden treasures of that camp and took therefrom a fortune which gave him the reputation of being Utah's wealthiest man. Prior to his mining ventures in this State he had been more or less active in the Black Hills country and in Tombstone, Ariz.

The famous Silver King mine of Park City and the name of Thomas Kearns were always linked together and many of this city's biggest structures were erected with funds which came from the Silver King property. Mr. Kearns was elected to the United States Senate in 1901 and served four years. He was owner of the Salt Lake Tribune and leaves a fortune estimated at several millions of dollars.

FEDERAL BRIBERY LAW INDORSED BY WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—In a letter today to Senator Gerry of Rhode Island, author of the new law making a Federal offense of bribery in Congressional primaries or elections, President Wilson expressing his satisfaction at the measure, wrote:

"I am sorry to say that such a bill was very much needed. Experience in the last election and in many that preceded it had demonstrated only too clearly the importance of putting the Federal power in commission against the processes of corruption at elections.

"The Department of Justice will use this power to the utmost limit of legitimate exercise, and I want you to know how much I appreciate your personal connection with the measure."

Palmer Discloses Efforts to Cripple Munitions.

Bernstorff and Other Germans Buy Much Acid.

Chemical Exchange Association Used as Blind.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Further disclosures of the efforts of Count von Bernstorff, Dr. Heinrich F. Albert and other German agents to prevent the manufacture and shipment of munitions to the Allies, were made today by the alien property custodian, A. Mitchell Palmer. He revealed the workings of the Chemical Exchange Association, organized by Dr. Hugo Schweitzer in 1915 to buy up all available carbolic acid in America and prevent its use in the manufacture of trinitrotoluol and other high explosives by converting it into harmless pharmeceutical products.

The story of the Chemical Exchange Association, Mr. Palmer said, was unearthed by Francis P. Garvan, director of the bureau of investigation in his investigation of the German-owned chemical company in this country which has been taken over by the alien property custodian. He found that Dr. Albert, in conjunction with Count von Bernstorff, arranged with Dr. Hugo Schweitzer, a naturalized American and a chemist of the Bayer company, to prepare and carry out plans which would prevent the shipment of carbolic acid to the Allies and to American munitions manufacturers making high explosives for them.

The Heyden Chemical Works, of No. 135 William street, New York, and the Bayer company of No. 117 Hudson street, New York, both of which have been taken over by Mr. Palmer, were the two chemical concerns through which Dr. Schweitzer arranged to carry out his plans, according to the alien property custodian.

MAKES CARBOLIC CONTRACT.

"In 1915," said Mr. Palmer, "Thomas A. Edison invented a synthetic carbolic acid, of which the American Oil and Supply Company of Newark, became the selling agent. Comparatively little carbolic acid was purchaseable at this time. Dr. Schweitzer immediately set out to control this supply and on June 22, 1915, entered into a contract with the American Oil and Supply Company, whereby this company agreed to ship 6000 pounds of carbolic acid each working day from July 1 1915, to December 31, 1915, and 4000 pounds each working day from January 1, 1916, to March 31, 1916, at a price nearly double the usual market price.

"Dr. Schweitzer put up $100,000 in cash, which was furnished by Dr. Albert as security for the faithful performance of this contract, and a $25,000 surety bond.

"To obviate doing business in his own name Schweitzer organized the Chemical Exchange Association. This was a co-partnership, comprising Dr. Schweitzer and Richard Kny, father-in-law of George Simon, business manager of the Heyden Chemical Works. Schall & Co., of No. 45 William street, New York, were the sales agent for Dr. Schweitzer.

"Every effort was made by Schweitzer and Kny to keep their contract secret and to prevent the American people from knowing that Dr. Albert and the German government were behind this contract. In the meantime the American Oil and Supply Company delivered large quantities of carbolic acid to the Heyden Chemical Works, which was converted into harmless pharmaceutical preparations and sold. The net profit on this deal was $816,000, which Richard Kny told Mr. Garvan was divided equally between himself and Dr. Schweitzer.

"The investigation showed that on June 23, 1915, the day after Schweitzer entered into his contract with the American Oil and Supply Company, G. Amsinck & Co., bankers, wrote Dr. Albert stating that they had received imperial German government certificates, dated January 1, 1916, as collateral for which they placed at the disposal of Dr. Albert a drawing account of $300,000. G. Amsinch & Co., acting upon the instructions of Dr. Albert, gave their check to Dr. Schweitzer, for $100,000, which they charged to the account of Dr. Albert. This was the $100,000 which Schweitzer posted as a forfeit with the American Oil and Supply Company, guaranteeing the fulfillment of his contract."

To celebrate the scheme's success, Mr. Palmer said, Dr. Schweitzer and Richard Kny gave a dinner to Dr. Albert at the Hotel Astor, New York, in 1916, and presented him with a loving cup.

IDEA OF BRUTE FORCE MAKES HUN BLOOD BOIL

HERR GOTHEIN COMPLAINS WILSON'S POSITION DENIES GERMAN EQUAL RIGHTS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 17. — Herr Gothein, a member of the Reichstag, writing in the Zeitung Am Mittag, declares President Wilson has given a death blow to the idea of a league of nations. His position, the writer asserts, is one of brute force rather than equal rights, and Germany would enter a league under such conditions with feelings of "indescribable bitterness."

Gothein asserts that the idea of surrendering at the discretion of the Allies makes the blood of even the most confirmed pacifists boil, and adds that, although he has opposed unrestricted submarine warfare, its relinquishment means an extraordinary weakening in the German military situation.

The Cologne Gazette publishes a manifesto of the Conservative party signed by Count Fridrich von Westarp and other members of the party, declaring that after President Wilson's reply the contest of arms must be fought out to a finish. It paints a terrible picture of the fate that would befall an invaded fatherland.

A dispatch to the Cologne Volks Zeitung from Berlin states that there will be exhaustive deliberations between the Reichstag, the Federal Council and the supreme command, as well as the leaders of all parties before a decision is reached concerning a reply to Mr. Wilson's note. It is said to be probable the Reichstag will not reassemble until next week.

It is announced that Chancellor Maximilian has appointed State Secretary Groeber as his representative in connection with the civil administration of martial law.

"FLU" AT FULLERTON.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

FULLERTON, Oct. 18.—Thirteen new cases of influenza have been reported for the twenty-four hours, making a total of 126 cases in the city since the epidemic started.

RIGOROUS COURSE TO KEEP THEM IN

DAILY CALISTHENICS FOR OFFICERS AND MEN AT KEARNY.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CAMP KEARNY (San Diego), Oct. 18.—Officers and men at Camp Kearny are being put through a rigorous course of calisthenics during the period of the epidemic with the idea of keeping them in the best possible physical condition. The rule requiring calisthenics applies even to the officers engaged in office duties, and the hours being set aside for this purpose must go through the prescribed exercises.

In addition to the calisthenics the officers and men are indulging in athletic sports in order to keep the health of the camp at the highest standard. Reports already show that the influenza has been kept well in check, only a few isolated cases being reported.

The entertainment program each night by the enlisted men at the headquarters group in honor of General David C. Shanks and the various camp staffs, proved one of the most enjoyable events attending the formation of the new division. Vocal and instrumental music, vaudeville and minstrel shows, boxing bouts, were the entertainments were served to the officers' mess at headquarters and the men of the various regiments entertained their friends and fellow soldiers listed men at their mess halls.

About 1000 men of the 347th Infantry, who reached camp yesterday from camp to the north, began the return hike to camp this morning. On arriving at Del Mar yesterday afternoon the men broke camp in a grove of eucalyptus trees and then engaged in a swim in the waters of sparga and bathing beach. This morning the Twenty-fourth Infantry left camp for the hike to Del Mar and will follow the same route used by the Eighty-first Division. The Thirty-second Infantry, Thirty-seventh and Forty-second Infantry, Field Artillery, mortar and field artillery battalions and divisional units of the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-sixty-sixth Field Artillery and Sixty-seventh Field Artillery will follow each day until October 26.

Rigid quarantine regulations are being observed on the camp and if the organizations now in camp here.

CHICAGO INVESTIGATES INFLUENZA SITUATION

DR. ROSENOW'S RESEARCHING CONSIDERED VALUABLE WILL BE U

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Dr. Edward C. Rosenow of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., has been asked by the State and city health authorities in the effort to secure effective preventive and curative for influenza, has arrived in Chicago for conference with Dr. John Dill Robertson, State Health Director, Dr. John Drake, State health officer, and a dozen cases of alleged bonded influenza commission.

The conference is to be a purely technical discussion of the germ discovered by Dr. Rosenow, it is said. Dr. Rosenow and Dr. Robertson have been successful in

This list will be collected Sunday afternoon from every one of the workers between the hours of 3 and 5 and a master list then compiled. The attention of the man or woman who thinks the committee either will not dare or has no right to publish his name is called to the statement received yesterday by Chairman McKee direct from headquarters and printed elsewhere in this issue. The general executive board of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District approves the publication by local committees of the names of persons, firms or corporations who, without good excuse, have failed to subscribe to the Fourth Liberty Loan or have made flagrantly inadequate subscriptions.

Hundred and thirty-five men and women in Los Angeles—some of them prominent, all of them able—will be made to bear the blame if Los Angeles fails to raise her quota in the Fourth Liberty Loan. This statement was made by the Liberty Loan Vigilance Committee last night after it had reviewed in executive session a number of cases of alleged bond-slacking.

Assessor John D. Fredericks says a careful investigation of the wealth of 235 citizens is being made and that unless these people make good on subscriptions today, their names will be published, together with the amount of their wealth and their subscriptions, after the drive.

Members of the committee representing precinct No. 585 last night called on J. H. Ryckman, Socialist lawyer, at his home, No. 4707 Budlong avenue, in a vain effort to get him to buy a Fourth Liberty Loan Bond. E. Harvey W. H. Harrison, who headed the delegation, said Ryckman told them he could not afford a bond. "In the Third Loan drive, they state, he told them he did not subscribe because he did not approve of the methods. Mrs. Ryckman bought a $50 bond of the Third Loan, and Harvey, their 14-year-old son, is said to buy one of this issue. Ryckman is a former associate of Job Harriman and has long been prominent in Socialist affairs here.

From all parts of the city comes word of a bracing for the finish. It has at last been realized that the honor of California rests in the keeping of Los Angeles, and there is no attempt to conceal the disappointment which would follow a failure to meet her quota.

The sacrifices we have given must give again. Those who have not given must be made to give. Ten millions of dollars in one day is a lot of money, but, divided among 600,000 people, it can and must be raised. This is the opinion of the committee. It is a time when the strength of union must be demonstrated. The task is too great for any committee or any single group of men. The pride of the city must be touched, or we fail, and this word will go to Gen. Pershing tonight: "Tell the boys from Los Angeles that their folks are only two-

"NEARLY ENOUGH" WON'T DO NOW.

"Nearly enough" won't do now. It must be all, every cent of the $42,938,900 set opposite our name or the "nearly enough" won't make it, insufficient funds," will be written upon the draft which the government has drawn against this city and which falls due at midnight.

All day yesterday committees of women and hundreds of Boy Scouts carried on the fight from almost every booth in town. The result of their work will not be known until today, but there was a great blossoming of special Victory Honor Roll badges.

Another appeal was made to every citizen to purchase Liberty Loan Bonds by the Council yesterday when the council passed resolutions to that effect. The resolutions were introduced by Councilman Olsen. He said he would lead the way in bolstering by buying another bond and each Councilman gave assurance that he would do likewise. Liberty Director Ballard needs more help. He calls for volunteers to aid in checking up the slackers today, and in securing new and increased subscriptions. Those willing to give a few hours to this important work are asked to report to W. F. Ross at precinct headquarters.

Great things are expected today of the Victory Honor Roll. A million and a half was subscribed through this medium yesterday. At least $3,000,000 is expected today. If the hope is realized, the fight for the top going on in every precinct will be made so much easier. Three million from ten million leaves seven million. Getting down to figures that are beginning to seem possible, but it is a task that must rest upon the individual conscience of every loyal citizen. The Honor Roll can't do it alone. No single agency can do it alone.

Banks will remain open tonight until 9 o'clock for the transaction of Liberty Loan business. Precinct headquarters will remain open until midnight. General headquarters will remain open until midnight. Clocks will cease to exist until Los Angeles'

AVIATORS TO FLY OVER CITY.

Sacramento Birdmen Expect to Make Trip Here in Six Hours and Half.

Under the direction of the Bank Activities Committee of the Fourth Liberty Loan drive, Lieut. Wells of the Arcadia Balloon School flew over the city yesterday, distributing 50,000 circulars calling upon the people to buy more bonds and help put Los Angeles over the top.

Today a group of Balloon School aviators, accompanied by several flyers from Sacramento, will duplicate the feat, distributing circulars printed in two colors. The Sacramento aviators expect to fly down to this city in six hours and a half.

BILLION STILL TO RAISE.

Big Rush Today Counted on for Success; San Diego Wins Honor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Tomorrow the nation will decide the degree of success of the Fourth Liberty Loan. Tonight, with only twenty-four hours remaining, the Treasury estimated the sum already raised at between $4,500,000,000 and $5,000,000,000, making $1,000,000,000 or more still necessary. The amount officially reported tonight was $3,958,589,600, including little of today's business, but representing an increase of $351,000,000 since last night.

On the eve of the greatest selling effort of the entire campaign, national loan headquarters limited comment to this:

"There must not be the slightest diminution of effort tomorrow. To gain the desired goal means the most vigorous selling from sunrise until as late at night as there is any one left to buy."

The managers still felt sure the big total would be subscribed, although they emphasized that it would take a multitude of last-minute $50 and $100 subscriptions as well as some big pledges. The loan would fail, they said, only if either the vast group of small subscribers or the smaller group of heavy buyers failed to invest at the last moment, believing the loan would go over without their help.

FEEL ENCOURAGED.

It was apparent from the flood of telegraphic reports to headquarters that a new spirit pervaded loan committees everywhere to go far above the individual marks set for them. Scores of messages today told of plans for suspending business in communities tomorrow to minimize intereference with the last day's round-up. Several hundred thousand men and women who heretofore have taken only a passive interest in the loan drive have been enrolled as solicitors for the last day.

San Diego, Cal., has won an honor flag with an oversubscription.

The Cuban quota of $6,000,000 for the Fourth Liberty Loan had been very largely oversubscribed.

The St. Louis Federal Reserve District is the first district to oversubscribe its quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan. The Treasury late today officially recognized its claim of $381,200 oversubscriptions more than its allotment of $260,000,000. The St. Louis district also was the first to go over in the third loan.

Chicago today dropped into seventh place in the percentage standing and was replaced by the Richmond district. Washington suddenly spurted over its $26,000,000 allotment and went ahead enthusiastically to roll up a big oversubscription to report to Berlin.

DISTRICT TOTALS.

The army Liberty Loan managers announced that nearly $40,000,000 in subscriptions for soldiers had been tabulated and that this would be raised to $50,000,00 by tomorrow night, thus more than doubling the $22,000,000 army subscription to the third loan.

Rear-Admiral T. J. Cowie, navy Liberty Loan officer, announced tonight that approximately $29,500,000 in bonds had been sold in the navy.

TWELFTH DISTRICT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Official figures compiled tonight credited the Twelfth Federal Reserve Bank District with $202,072,410 in subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan, 70 per cent. of the district's allotment.

Although Oregon reported unofficially several days ago that she had oversubscribed her quota, Utah tonight was making a close contest on the basis of subscriptions actually reported in bank. Both States had the same official bank percentage 98 per cent. Idaho was in third place with 85 per cent. of its allotment subscribed. Arizona and Washington had 76.6 per cent. each. Southern

PARACHUTE SAVES AIRMAN

Caught in a sudden "Santa Ana" wind storm which swept the section near the Arcadia Balloon School, Lieut. Harry J. Van Auken of the school had a thrilling experience yesterday afternoon before he finally made a successful parachute drop to escape possible death in a rapidly falling army balloon.

Lieut. Van Auken was on observation work, including "smoke bomb" and signal practice, and was working from a captive balloon, held by a steel cable at an altitude of 3000 feet. The wind storm came up suddenly and snapped the cable that held the big balloon. Lieut. Van Auken was carried to an altitude of about 8000 feet before he was able to get control of the situation. Then he began to work furiously at the gas valve. He released the gas so rapidly that when the balloon had dropped to about 2000 feet, he feared he was descending too rapidly and that the balloon might collapse over him.

The officer then prepared his parachute and ripped the balloon open so it would descend to the ground without being carried away. This was done while the wind storm was still at its height.

Lieut. Van Auken landed six miles southwest of the Arcadia camp and the balloon, which reached ground before he, landed a mile away near the intersection of the El Monte and San Gabriel roads. In descending the parachute opened after a short drop from the balloon and the drop was made as the storm died down.

As soon as the officer landed he reported by telephone to Maj. J. M. Harris, adjutant of the Arcadia school. The damage to the balloon is slight and Lieut. van Auken was uninjured.

MIX-UP IN NAMES.

Judge Orders Woman to Resume Her Maiden Title Because She has no Other.

"She may resume her maiden name, because if she doesn't, she will not be certain what her real name is," remarked Judge York yesterday, in the Young divorce action, granting the request of Mrs Mildred Young to resume her maiden name of McKinzie.

The testimony showed that Richard Clifford Young, a soldier at Fort MacArthur, had also gone under the name of George Clifford Lillie. Letters were offered in evidence from his father and brother, written under the name of Lillie.

Mrs. Young testified that her husband had spanked here with his hand, and with a slipper. Mr. Young was not in court, but signed waiver of his rights as a soldier so that the trial could proceed. The decree was granted.

YOUNG BUT MUCH-WED.

Girl Who Married Twice Before She was Sixteen would Annul Last Affair.

Two marriages while still 16 years old are credited to Anna T. Nudson-Bates. Yesterday she sought an annulment of her marriage to Byron M. Bates. The ceremony was performed in this city January 8, 1910. It appears that November 23, 1909, she had married Andrew Nudson in this city, and was a kissless bride, as they separated the same day. Mr. Nudson, who was 19, brought suit to annul the marriage. His bride, being informed that the marriage had been annulled, as the complaint prepared by Attorney W. J. Ford, states, married Mr. Bates less than two months later.

Cases in this City Show a Marked Decrease.

Mrs. Clara Baldwin Stocker.

Clara Baldwin Stocker, heiress of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin, and one of the richest women in America, is confined to her bed with Spanish influenza at her beach home, No. 909 Ocean Front, Santa Monica. She was taken sick early on Thursday and, on orders of her physician, Dr. F. J. Wagner, went immediately to bed.

Dr. Wagner, who is also city health officer of Santa Monica, says that her case appears to be a light one and that there are no indications of any complications.

Mrs. Stocker's husband, Harry Randolph Stocker, died here last April.

Dr. Wagner said yesterday that there are between fifty and sixty mild cases of the influenza in Santa Monica and about as many at Venice. No deaths directly attributed to the disease have been reported to him.

The streets of Venice were flushed last night with sea water by direction of Mayor Cole, as an influenza prevention measure. Venice has one of the few salt-water systems on either coast. Fifty firemen worked last night under the supervision of the health department.

Showing a falling off of 200 compared with Thursday's figures, only 554 cases of influenza were reported to Health Commissioner Powers in this city yesterday.

There were fourteen deaths Thursday and twenty-eight deaths from influenza, with pneumonia complications yesterday. The increase in death rate is accounted for by the fact that cases which have been on record for a week or ten days have just reached their most critical stage or else broken. health department officials stating that the death rate yesterday was no greater than might have been expected, considering that there were about 1000 cases of influenza on record last Sunday.

Last night the city had been closed against influenza contagion for exactly a week, and the number of cases reported from day to day had shown a great decline, it is stated. There were only two influenza cases yesterday at the emergency hospital, which the health department established at the Parent-Teacher clinic on Yale street. The influenza ward was opened Thursday, but there has been no great demand for accommodations there.

Dr. Maude L. Morrison, in charge of the epidemic ward at the County Hospital since the first of the month, died yesterday of influenza contracted while on duty. She was a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and entered the hospital in July, 1917, as an interne. She would have completed her course of training in December, when she planned to open an office of her own.

Dr. Morrison is the daughter of the late Capt. T. W. Morrison, one of the three captains shot at San Juan Hill during the Spanish-American War, and in honor of whom an army transport was named a few years ago. Her brother is former Superior Judge Willis I. Morrison of this city. Dr. Morrison, ex-Judge Morrison and another sister, Miss Florence C. Morrison, lived at No. 141 North Madison street, Pasadena. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at the parlors of Reynolds & Van Nuys in Pasadena.

When Councilman Cleaveland yesterday introduced a resolution requesting the State Board of Health and the United States government to close the saloons, dance halls and wholesale liquor houses in Vernon six other Councilmen wanted to second the motion. All agreed that the DEFEAT LOOMS FOR RANDALL.

Ultra-Pacifist Headed for the Political Discard.

Rolph Supporters Jump on Stephens Band Wagon.

Snyder Claims Bell will Carry San Francisco.

BY THE WATCHMAN.

Thirteen Congressmen who voted wrong on President Wilson's preparedness measures were either defeated at the last primary election or did not seek renomination. They were repudiated by their constituents and thrown into the political discard. Charles H. Randall has a more reprehensible record than most of them. While a majority of them voted wrong on but five bills, Randall, the ultrapacifist, voted wrong eight times. That he will get his just reward—political oblivion—at the November election is about the surest thing you know. The people of the Ninth District are too patriotic to support such a man.

The following will bear careful study:

Denver S. Church (Dem.) of Fresno, voted wrong on eight measures and did not seek re-election.

Robert Crosser (Dem.) of Cleveland, voted wrong on five measures and was defeated at the primaries.

Charles H. Dillon, South Dakota, wrong on eight measures; defeated.

William Gordon (Dem.,) Cleveland, wrong on five measures; defeated.

Courtney W. Hamlin (Dem.,) Missouri, wrong on five measures; defeated.

Benjamin C. Hilliard (Dem.,) Colorado, wrong on eight measures; defeated.

Walter Kehoe (Dem.,) Florida, voted wrong on one measure, the declaration of war; defeated.

Ernest Lundeen (Rep.,) Minnesota, wrong on two measures; defeated.

Jeannette Rankin (Rep.,) Montana, sought Senatorial nomination, voted wrong on declaration of war and conscription; defeated.

Dorsey W. Shackleford (Dem.,) Missouri, wrong on five measures; defeated.

Charles H. Sloan (Rep.,) Nebraska, voted wrong on seven measures; defeated.

Frank Woods (Rep.,) Iowa, wrong on seven measures; defeated.

James L. Slayden (Dem.,) Texas, wrong on seven measures and withdrew from the primaries after President Wilson publicly condemned him.

Will the voters of the Ninth Congress District prove less patriotic than Americans in other Congress districts? This question is often asked, and few people think they will.

Loyalty to the Party.

Many of the Republicans who voted for James Rolph at the primary election are proving their loyalty to the party by pledging their support to Gov. Stephens. According to reports from the north, a poll has been taken of San Francisco and the bay district, showing that the former Rolph supporters are on the Stephens band wagon. It is reported that a poll of 700 men in San Francisco who voted for Rolph showed 587 now for the Governor.

J. O. Hayes of San Jose, former Judge Walter Bordwell of this city, Dist.-Atty. Fickert of San Francisco and C. A. McGee of San Diego, all Republican candidates for the nomination, have written letters to Gov. Stephens congratulating him and pledging their support.

Says North for Bell.

OUR YOUNGEST IS WOUNDED.

Angeleno Who Enlisted at Seventeen is in Hospital in France.

Clarence Otto Clark, who was severely wounded in France on August 24, is probably the youngest Los Angeles soldier overseas. He was 17 years old when he enlisted a year ago in July. He suffered from gas on August 9, and had just gone back to his battery, A, of the One Hundred and Nineteenth Field Artillery, when he was wounded and sent to a base hospital.

His brother, Charles F. Clark, 24 years old, enlisted at the same time and is in the same battery. Another brother, Arthur J. Clark of this city, has passed his third army examination and is now in Class A1. The oldest brother, William T. Clark, a Kern county rancher, is 37 years old and registered in the latest draft.

The mother of the men, Mrs. Mary E. Clark, lives part of the time with the eldest son, and part of the time with her daughter, Mrs. Nina Rodrick of No. 2219 Damon street. There are two other daughters, Mrs. Alta Smock of this city and Mrs. Gertrude Ross of Hawthorne.

Mayor M. P. Snyder on his return from the north yesterday.

Mr. Snyder is one of the committee of three engaged in handling the destinies of the Bell-for-Governor campaign in the south. He has been in conference for several days with Bell leaders in the north and then returned along the coast route by auto.

"The Bell wave is inundating the north," said Mr. Snyder. "I believe the independent candidate will come to the Tescheipi with a majority over Mr. Stephens that cannot be offset by any vote here."

CONVICTED OF SLAYING.

Colored Woman Found Guilty of Manslaughter in Drunken Stabbing Affray.

Carmel Gonzales, colored, charged with the slaying of Mrs. Sarah Smith, also colored, in a Central-avenue rooming-house, July 19, last, was convicted of manslaughter by a jury in Judge Houser's court yesterday. The defendant pleaded self-defense, claiming she did not know how Mrs. Smith came to be cut in the neck.

It was in evidence that the women had quarreled and that there had been more or less to drink. Carmel Gonzales was handling a small knife at the time. It was also testified to that Ed. Martin, colored, a friend of Carmel's had separated the women several times before the fatal blow was struck.

IS FOUND GUILTY.

Fred Harris, alias John Harris, was yesterday found guilty of second degree burglary before Superior Judge Willis. It was alleged in the complaint that the defendant entered the office of Dr. A. R. McLeod in the L. W. Heliman Building on the night of August 16, in search of drugs. According to the officers who arrested him, he is believed to be the man who entered over a dozen dentist offices last spring, when only cocaine and morphine were taken. Sentence will be pronounced next Tuesday.

INITIATIVE BILL CALLED MENACE

Noted Physician Condemns Health Insurance.

Would be Disaster to State, He Declares.

Prudential Officer Calls it Pro-Germanism.

Designating compulsory health insurance as dangerous and pernicious German propaganda, aimed directly at hindering the programme of public health protection and impeding the practice of medicine, Dr. Frederick L. Hoffman, statistician of the Prudential Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., one of the leading medical men of the country, issued a statement here yesterday regarding the proposed menace.

Dr. Hoffman, who is paying California a visit as a member of a board to decide upon the site for a Federal leprosarium and to investigate malaria and leprosy conditions of the State, is at the Alexandria.

"Compulsory health insurance," he declared, "would be a disaster to the people of this State. It would for the first time establish a pernicious class distinction and divide the people both under the act and outside of it. It would intrench mediocre members of the medical profession and hinder the programme of public health and the practice of medicine.

"I have investigated this matter four different times abroad—in Germany, England, Austria and elsewhere—and I firmly believe that the whole propaganda is inspired by pro-German sentiment.

SOCIALISTIC MOVE.

"Health insurance represents a purely Socialistic move in the direction of an enormous bureaucracy, typical of Germany. Once established, it is practically impossible to put it out of business. Conservatively it will cost the people of California not less than $25,000,000 a year in direct or indirect taxes, wholly unnecessary in view of the splendid health progress which the State has made and is making.

"What would generally happen is that any man or woman with a trifling ailment would remain away from work from twice to three times as long as necessary. He would, in addition, consume, on account of trivial ailments, the time and attention of doctors urgently required for far more serious cases.

"The passage of such an act will seriously complicate the labor situation by encouraging absences from work, and to that extent enormously hinder the economic progress of this State.

NO NEED FOR IT.

"Details are utterly hopeless. Every ailment would be exaggerated and those needing the least attention would get the most. No health insurance can properly benefit the poor or those in need of better medical attention than they now receive."

As the result of his State-wide investigation, Dr. Hoffman stated that malarial conditions in the Sacramento Valley are alarming and urgently in need of drastic attention.

"If matters go on as they have been going," he said, "there will be re-established endemic centers of the disease which, in later years will prove extremely difficult to eradicate."

California is not in for a siege of influenza, he stated. The malady will decline as rapidly as it has sprung up. The Leary vaccine, he declares, is the most efficient combatative measure, although by no means a cure.

Dr. Hoffman, who was to have spoken here to the County Medical Association and to the Life Underwriters' Association, is a member of the Labor Committee of the National Council of Defense, of the National Research Council and the Committee on Public Information.

TWIN SISTERS ASK PASSPORTS.

College Girls Would go to Europe to Engage in Red Cross Work.

Edith M. and Ethel H. Rohrig, twins, both students of Upland College, applied yesterday to R. S. Zimmerman, clerk in the office of the United States District Court, for passports to go to England and France in Red Cross work.

The two sisters were 25 years of age Thursday and it was on that day that they received the authorization to prepare for their work overseas. They have never been outside of California before, they say in their twin applications.

QUESTIONNAIRES TO BE SENT OUT SOON.

SELECTIVE SERVICE BOARDS ARE READY TO ACT WHEN THE ORDER COMES.

Selective service boards in Los Angeles are practically ready to start sending out questionnaires to men in the next call of the September registration, those between 37 and 45 and those 18 years old. While the order has been sent from the Provost-Marshal-General, it has to go through the hands of the State Adjutant-General and by last night it had not been received by the local boards here.

Preparations are being made, however to send the questionnaires, and if the order does not come too soon, the order number will be on all questionnaires to be sent out. Most of the boards have addressed their questionnaires. Medical examinations are being rushed in anticipation of the next call. The government has requested that most of the work be completed within 100 days.

Numerous requests have come to local boards from Italians who are anxious to go to Italy to fight for their country. It is anticipated that several hundred will leave Los Angeles to join the Italian colors.

SUICIDE'S WILL FILED.

Bulk of Ten Thousand Dollar Estate of Mary E. Donnelly Left to Son.

The will of the late Mary E. Donnelly, who left her home, No. 2113 Michigan avenue on March 21, last, leaving a note stating that she contemplated suicide, was filed for probate yesterday. The deceased left an estate valued at $10,000, consisting of stock in the Central Labor Temple, a life insurance policy and cash in several local banks. The will says: "In case I am found dead, I give all I possess to my son, Rolin J. Adair, with the exception of $200 to E. Corbit of Meridan, Miss., and Jesse Ellis, who is living at my home. The balance of the estate I bequeath to my son. I am perfectly sane, but at the end I find I am a coward. What is coming I cannot face."

ALLEGED BOGUS CHECK MAN MAY BE INSANE.

Investigation as to the sanity of George Gebaur, charged with having cashed over fifteen fictitious checks on local and Hollywood merchants, within the last two weeks, will probably be ordered this week. At his preliminary hearing before Justice Hinshaw yesterday, the prisoner refused to keep still and when the judge held him to answer in the Superior Court under bonds of $2000, he indulged in such strenuous language that the court ordered that he be taken to the County Jail immediately.

Gebaur is said to have cashed a fictitious check at the Police Station in Hollywood and another at the Central Hardware Company, last Wednesday.

WIDOW DECLINES TO BE ADMINISTRATRIX.

A petition for special letters of administration over the estate of the late J. S. Kinney, Long Beach merchant, killed in an auto accident on October 13, was filed yesterday by the Long Beach Trust and Savings Company. It is alleged in the petition that the widow, Mary E. Kinney, was named as administratrix, but that she does not care to serve.

The estate is valued at $30,000, consisting of real estate and personal property.

SENTENCE GEM ROBBER.

Enemy Alien Who Confessed Theft Given Indeterminate Penitentiary Term.

Denying an application for probation, Superior Judge Willis yesterday sentenced Leo Wende, alias George Brown, the alien German enemy who recently confessed to the theft of $27,000 worth of gems from the store of Donavan and Seamans Company, to an indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years in San Quentin penitentiary. Attorney Ford made a strong plea that his client be released on probation, but this was opposed by Probation Officer Dobbs.

Wende was given a stay of execution of one week to straighten up his business affairs.

HELD TO ANSWER.

Norman B. Allen, who is alleged to have stolen $78 from Ed Meyers when the latter shared his room with him on the night of October 15 was held to answer charges of grand larceny in the Superior Court at his preliminary hearing before Justice Brown yesterday. Bonds were set at $1000.

An Appeal to the Public:

As a result of war conditions and the present epidemic of influenza, there has been an abnormal increase in local telephone traffic. Col. Arthur Williams, U.S.A.

"Manual for Noncommissioned Officers and Privates of Infantry, 1917." It is planned to have all the men thoroughly instructed in the elementary work of a soldier as laid down in the foregoing manual. Drills are to be held on two evenings per week in each district.

Col. Williams has appointed Henry E. Millar, Gordon B. Crary and E. E. Chapman as assistants to aid him in the organization and to initiate the instructors. These men are especially fitted for this work by reason of their special training and experience in assisting Col. Williams in his work for the past three years, of preparing men to become noncommissioned officers and to enter the officers' training camps.

Col. Williams entered the regular army in 1868. He has had commands in Cuba, the Philippines, Alaska and the Northwest, and in Texas during the recent Mexican trouble. He was stationed at Fort Leavenworth for six years, where he acted as instructor on the opening of the United States Infantry and Cavalry School.

TO CAMP TAYLOR.

William I. Traeger, deputy in the local office of the State Supreme Court, was notified yesterday that he has been accepted for service in the officers' training camp at Camp Taylor, Ky., and will leave for camp next Tuesday. He expects to be stationed there in intensive military training for not less than three months. Mr. Traeger will be attached to the field artillery service. He served in the Spanish-American War with credit, and is an officer in the Native Sons of California.

WIFE GETS DECREE.

Mrs. Alice Fleming was granted a decree of divorce from W. G. Fleming by Judge Hewitt, yesterday. The ground was nonsupport. Mr. Fleming appeared in court and denied his wife's allegations. The court denied his cross-complaint.

CALLS FLOOD CONTROL APPOINTMENT ILLEGAL

ACTION OF SUPERVISORS IN NAMING LAWYER TO HANDLE PROJECT PROTESTED.

What the Supervisors seem to regard as a communication inspired "by some one with an axe to grind," has been received by the board. The writer is Daniel Riley, said to be a citizen in good standing, who takes issue with the Supervisors for approving the selection of Charles S. Burnell, appointed August 19, last, as special counsel for the flood control district, as deputy County Counsel to aid in the prosecution of the Malibu road case, on trial before a jury in Judge McCormick's court.

Mr. Riley states that Mr. Burnell was "hired to look after the flood control job, and according to your action he is to be paid from the funds of the flood control district. As a taxpayer, I must vehemently protest against such unlawful action on the part of your Honorable Board." He further states that it was "just by such unlawful methods" that the deficit of $1,250,000 occurred and "the taxpayers' money misappropriated." This resulted in the indictment of three Supervisors by the grand jury for alleged misconduct in office. He trusts the Supervisors will take steps to prevent any further juggling of the funds.

It is stated that Mr. Riley will lay the matter before the grand jury and the District Attorney.

In the office of the Supervisors yesterday, it was admitted that such a letter had been received and that nothing had been done about it.

Supervisor Dodge stated that it seemed to him that the letter had been inspired by enemies of the flood control.

SAYS ROW OVER BARLEY STARTED HOME WOES.

WOMAN ACCUSES HUSBAND OF CRUELTY; HE ATTACKS MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Said Mrs. Ogla Freda Bouffard in the trial of her divorce suit against Joseph Bouffard, in Judge Avery's court, yesterday:

"The day after my son was born, my husband, who is a railroad man, came off his run and looked at the boy.

"'He don't look like my son; he looks Irish,' he told me."

She told a story of alleged intoxication, cruelty and neglect. Mr. Bouffard, by deposition, declared that his wife is German. Her mother's name is Mrs. Emily Mittelstadt. When the Lusitania was sunk, Mr. Bouffard said to his wife:

"That Kaiser had better lay off Uncle Sam. If he don't, he is going to have Uncle Sam after him, and he will have some one after him, then."

The mother-in-law said, according to the deposition:

"That will only be another one the Kaiser will have to whip."

Mr. Bouffard went on to say that "they all laughed, and my mother-in-law said, 'Deutschland uber Alles.'"

"I knew more German than they thought I did," he stated.

Judge Avery took the case under submission on law points. Attorney Griffith Jones represented Mr. Bouffard at the trial.

WANTED FOR MURDER.

Mexican Arrested Here for Threats Must Face New Charge in Visalia.

With information that Marcelena Oyala, a Mexican who attempted to shoot Deputy Sheriffs Modie and Cleveland last Monday when they placed him under arrest at the corner of Florence and Central avenues, is wanted in Visalia for murder, Deputy Sheriff Cleveland yesterday secured a felony complaint from the District Attorney's office charging assault with intent to commit murder.

The Mexican is now lying in the County Hospital recovering from a head wound received during the fight. It was after he is said to have threatened several of his countrymen with death. When taken to the hospital it was found he had been using a Mexican drug, it is said.

INDICT TEN HERE.

Federal Grand Jury Institutes First Prosecutions Under President's Passport Proclamation.

Our first criminal prosecutions under the proclamation of President Wilson making it a crime to leave or enter the United States without a passport, appeared in the Federal grand jury report, yesterday.

May Lewis, Pio Quinto Vlaz, Louis Villaresi, Juan Bermudes, Nettie Coleman and Henry Spates were indicted for entering the country without a passport, and Florence Costello and Edward F. Barber were indicted for leaving the United States without a passport.

Other indictments were against Gelen H. Snowden, charged with using the mails in a scheme to defraud, and Francis S. Siegfried, sending an improper letter through the mails.

YOUTH FILES SUIT TO ANNUL MARRIAGE.

Joseph T. Simons not only married young, but apparently he did not obtain the consent of his mother, Laura S. Garfield, to wed Muriel Barnhardt Simons. Joseph was 16 years old when he eloped with Miss Barnhardt to Santa Ana, June 28, 1917, and was married. The couple separated June 15, last. Yesterday he filed suit through his mother to annul the marriage. The complaint was prepared by Attorney W. J. Ford.

GIRLS ACCUSED.

Criminal complaints charging passing fictitious checks were yesterday issued from the District Attorney's office against two girls, Maggie Purdy and Purdy Price, who were arrested last Thursday after they are said to have cashed four checks for small amounts on local banks. They will be arraigned in the justice court today.

FIXERS OF FOOD PRICES AT WORK

New Board to Investigate Costs, Fix Average.

Rules will be Enforced by Twelve Inspectors.

Administrator Says Public is Fairly Dealt With.

Organization and outlining of the new duties of determining the maximum allowed any retailer on cost of products, occupied the Price Interpretation Board, appointed day before yesterday by Food Administrator Louis M. Cole, at its first meeting yesterday afternoon at the administration headquarters.

The new board, which is representative of the Southland, will investigate all cost and selling prices of food articles for the entire southern portion of the State. It comprises Mrs. E. A. Bryant, whose duty it will be to represent the consumers; Victor H. Tuttle, Edmund D. Dale, S. S. Kauffman, P. F. McCarty, Jack Jevne, J. B. Jacobs and Louis M. Cole, who is the administrative head.

FIX AVERAGE PRICE.

The board is hereafter to meet every Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. It will confer with the wholesalers with regard to prices charged the retailer, and ultimately fix an average price. It was stated, for instance, that if a merchant purchases a commodity at $1.50 a dozen at one specific time, and the next day should purchase an additional amount at the rate of $2, while still having a surplus of his first purchase, he will still have his stated price posted on the bulletin board. The committee, however, will decide on his average price, and probably name $1.75 as the percentage basis of cost allowance.

Working with the board will be twelve inspectors under E. Basthein and F. Munster, who will see that all rulings in regard to the posting of fair food prices on bulletin boards in retail establishments are observed.

"The scheme is one to establish confidence in the mind of the public, and to assure the people that grocers are not wholly responsible for the existing high prices," was Administrator Cole's statement. "The retailer's profit is limited. It is never more than 25 per cent, and expenses often run as high as 22 per cent. The consumer is being fairly dealt with.

"The whole high-price difficulty arises from the Presidential proclamation which exercises no control over the prices charged by the producer, on whom great inducements must be held out to keep him in the field."

BARRINGER MUST STAND TRIAL HERE.

SUPREME COURT RULES THAT LOCAL COURT HAS JURISDICTION IN CASE.

Melvin A. Barringer, Santa Barbara capitalist, must stand trial in the Los Angeles Superior Court on the charge of bigamy, instead of the courts of Santa Barbara county, the State Supreme Court having dismissed his appeal from the judgment of Superior Judge Craig, who decided that the courts of Los Angeles county had jurisdiction in the matter. The Supreme Court decided the point without leaving the bench and by a unanimous vote.

It was argued by W. J. Ford, who appeared for Barringer, that the case must be tried in Santa Barbara, where Barringer lives, while Joseph L. Lewinshon, assistant to the Attorney-General, argued that either court had jurisdiction. Barringer was taken into custody here, and since then he and his attorney have waged a continual fight to keep the case from trial here.

Barringer married Miss Victoria Kern, at Mt. Vernon, Ill., March 16, 1906, and in September, 1915, was granted a divorce from her by the courts of Laramie county, Wyoming. Later in that same month he married Miss Nora J. Lowell at Santa Barbara, where the couple are living at the present time. It is charged by the prosecution that Barringer was not a resident of Wyoming at the time the divorce was granted, and that therefore he had no right to marry a second time. It is upon this alleged fact the charge of bigamy is based.

EASTERN STAR ELECTS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SANTA CRUZ, Oct. 18.—The California Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, closed its annual convention here last night after the appointment of officers and the selection of San Francisco for its convention place for 1919. The officers appointed were: Grand Marshal, Marie Adler, San Francisco; Grand, Chaplain, Margaret McPeak Campbell, Glendale; Grand Conductress, Maud Sibley, Los Angeles; Grand Associate Conductress, Margaret M. Job, San Francisco; Grand Adah, Minnie B. White, Oakland; Grand Ruth, Ethel Sweetner, Crockett; Grand Esther, Irma McDonald, Sacramento; Grand Martha, Jessie E. Barnum, Eureka; Grand Electa, Isabella Daltrich, San Francisco; Grand Organist, Ida M. Bennett, Placerville; Grand Warder, Jennie Moore, Santa Cruz; Grand Sentinel, Edna L. Ocheltree, Marysville. The new officers were installed by Grand Worthy Matron Mrs. Iva C. Crane Shellhammet.

DOYLE SUED.

Jack Doyle, Vernon liquor dealer, and John Kelley were the winners yesterday in a suit brought by James D. Farquahr, a real estate dealer, for $2795 damages, for an alleged attack by a bulldog owned by the defendants. The latter asked for a nonsuit, which Judge Weller granted. Mr. Farquahr failed, according to the court, to prove that he was not a trespasser on the defendants' premises when the dog bit him.

FARMER ROBBED.

M. Okomata, a truck farmer living at No. 1760 Nadeau avenue reported to the Sheriff's office last night that someone had entered his house while he was working in the field yesterday morning, and had taken $65 in cash and a check for $200. Deputy Sheriffs Wright and Cannon investigated the case, but could find no trace of the burglar.

THE STOCK SHOW IN ROTOGRAVURE.

See the Liberty Fair Animals in the "Farm and Tractor."

The Spanish "flu" scare has advanced rather than retarded the efforts of the management of the Liberty Fair to make this great event a complete success. It has afforded needed time for the perfection of the plans all around and if the fair opens on October 26, as is now contemplated, it will be a bigger and better show than had everything gone ahead on schedule. The postponement has given The Times Farm and Tractor Section an opportunity to secure photographs of some of the great animals that are to be shown in the Liberty Fair live-stock show and there will be three whole pages of these in tomorrow's issue. The pictures, of course, will be in rotogravure and everyone interested in live stock will be interested in them.

The issue will be full of items from all parts of Southern California, covering crop production and a variety of interesting and timely agricultural subjects. One of the interesting articles will deal with the great chili pepper and pimiento crops of this section and will be accompanied by a page of "roto" illustrations. Another will give some light on the dried fruit situation in California. There is a great account of the wonderful production record of Imperial Valley during the present year, with down-to-the-minute statistics from the American Nile country. Mr. Kruckeberg has written a strong article for his poultry page on the subject of placing the returned soldiers in agriculture.

MAKES LARGE BEQUESTS.

Will of Late Mrs. Mary W. Powers Disposes of Valuable Estate Here.

By the terms of the will of Mrs. Mary W. Powers, who died on October 7, which was filed for probate yesterday, the Missionary Society of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church of this city and the Christ Mission of New York were remembered by $1000 bequests. The estate is valued at $75,000 and more than forty nieces, nephews and others were given cash bequests ranging from $500 to $5000.

The balance of the estate was left to Mrs. Powers's nephews, A. G. Wood and Joseph S. Wood of this city.

TRANSFER WHITTIER BOYS TO PRESTON.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

WHITTIER, Oct. 18.—Quietly and without incident thirty of the oldest boys in the Whittier State School were last evening transferred to the Preston School of Industry. They left here on a special Pacific Electric car, in charge of four officers of the school. At Los Angeles they transferred to a Southern Pacific special and were accompanied by their Whittier officers to Galt, where Preston officials met them.

Back of this transfer are two significant facts. Preston is a school of correction for older boys. Ninety-five per cent. of the present enrollment at Preston are in draft ages. During the great war delinquency among older boys has decreased, as shown by the constantly decreasing number at the school. On the other hand, Whittier State School takes the younger boys, and among younger boys delinquency has undoubtedly increased under war conditions, it is said.

While the population of the Preston school was decreasing, that of Whittier was increasing—to nearly 300, a larger number than at any other time during the past twelve years. Hence the transfer last evening. Preston had 237 boys, with accommodations for 400, or even more in an emergency.

For some months conditions at Whittier have been such that boys committed by the courts had to be detained in various city detention homes on a waiting list. Telegraphic requests were received for the admission of six yesterday, and for the admission of eight others on the two preceding days. By the transfer made last evening these may be admitted at once.

BOARD OF HEALTH SENDS PHYSICIANS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 18.—A special meeting of the directors of the Red Cross was held today to make arrangements for taking care of an emergency call received last night from the Coachella Valley, where eighty-five cases of Spanish influenza were reported. To complicate the situation, the valley's only physician, Dr. C. S. Jennings, who has been administering for the people of Indio, Thermal, Mecca and Coachella, is himself confined to his bed with the disease. All Southern Pacific transcontinental trains stop at Indio, and persons from the infected cities of the East are believed to have brought the influenza to the valley.

The State Board of Health today took a hand in providing aid for the valley and two physicians have been sent out to care for the victims.

The Red Cross will furnish pneumonia jackets and face masks, which will be taken out tomorrow by Mrs. M. M. Pentoney, county social agent, who will also assist in caring for the sufferers. It is stated that a church building will be converted into a temporary hospital for the patients.

FLASHES.

LEE OCHS HERE.

WILD SIGN STARS FOR UNITED PICTURES CORPORATION.

By Grace Kingsley.

As a part of the reason for his tour of the Pacific Coast, Lee Ochs, vice-president of the United Picture Theaters, Inc., who returned from the north yesterday, states he is planning signing up a number of new western stars for his organization, but that he does not yet wish to make any announcements.

He paid a visit yesterday to the Hamilton studios, where he watched Kitty Gordon and Dustin Farnum at work on their current pictures, and was much pleased with the progress they are making and with the sets erected for their use. In fact, he said he felt almost tempted to come out and live in the handsome French chateau, which is a part of the Gordon sets for "The Nurse's Story." However, when he was informed it is shortly to be blown up in the interests of art, he changed his mind.

During his Coast tour, Mr. Ochs has closed with some of the more important western theaters for the production of his organization.

Pickfords Come Home.

Speeding west and due to arrive this afternoon at the bedside of Lottie Pickford are her sister, Mary Pickford, and Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, her mother. Miss Lottie Pickford has been lying grievously ill at the Sister's Hospital, and a few days ago both Mrs. Pickford, at that time in New York, and Mary Pickford, who was in San Francisco, were sent for. Mary took the train for the East in order to join her mother at Omaha, where the two met day before yesterday.

Miss Pickford's condition was reported better yesterday morning, and it is possible she may be able to stand an aural operation when her mother and sister arrive. At any rate, the matter will be determined at that time.

In the meantime, the matter of Miss Pickford's new contract is in abeyance, though it is possible Mrs. Pickford may have some announcement to make on her arrival.

Out of the Silence.

Billy Garwood, former picture star, has returned to the stage. He opened last week at Sacramento in a new play written by Crane Wilbur and called "The Common Cause." After a successful three days' run, the piece was moved into the Columbia Theater, San Francisco, from whence, next week, it will go on the road.

Says Reports Exaggerated.

William Russell knows just how Tom Sawyer felt when that celebrated youth, returning home after a truant escapade, heard his funeral sermon being preached. When Mr. Russell arrived home in Santa Barbara from this city last Tuesday night the first newspaper he picked up contained headlines announcing his death, the report being caused, no doubt, by the news of his influenza sufferings. And on his way to the newspaper office to deliver the famous Mark Twain line that the "report was greatly exaggerated" he overheard a friend of his saying to another, as they stood on a corner:

"And Bill was a nice fellow, too! But he was a daredevil, and I'll bet he's sore he didn't die with his boots on."

"Daddy Long Legs" a Film.

Anita Stewart, it is understood, is to appear in a film version of "Daddy Long Legs," in which Henry Miller and Ruth Chatterton co-starred so long.

Hawks with Goldwyn.

J. G. Hawks, formerly of the Ince staff, is to be head of the Goldwyn scenario staff at Culver City studios, succeeding Willard Mack, who is to direct his wife, Pauline Frederick.

Divine One Goes to France.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, after a strenuous season, finds it necessary to cancel all further bookings, and to return to France, where she is to undergo another operation. Though friends in this country have implored her to remain here, she wants to go to her home in Paris to undergo the ordeal.

During her vaudeville tour the great French star has been receiving $5500 weekly for her act.

Dorothy Jardon, Opera Star.

And at last Dorothy Jardon's operatic dreams have come true! When she was last seen here at the Orpheum, you know, she told us she was going to be an operatic star—and some of us believed her! Now, word reaches this department that Miss Jardon has really arrived at the goal of her dreams (if dreams have goals!) and will make her operatic debut with the Chicago Grand Opera Company this season in "Fedora."

Heard on the Rialto:

"Well, I was going to take a vacation, anyhow."

"I tell 'em when they get ready for me to go back to work they can just come get me out of the County Jail. I'll be in there for debt."

"Oh, yes, he's got it hard."

"Anyhow, I've got my scrap book all fixed up. It looks dandy. You know, those notices I got in—oh, must you go?"

"Gives me a chance to look around in pictures."

"Yes, great economy. I'm wearing my old stage clothes out."

"Say, this old beauty chase is sure tiresome, but it certainly is nice to have plenty of time to get your hair frizzed."

"Oh, my yes, the affair is coming on fast! They went swimming together again today."

"Says she got laid off on account of the 'flu,' but I hear—though of course it was those jealous cats that told me—that she's cancelled!"

"What will you gargle?"

DIVORCE GRANTED.

After blocking a divorce suit filed by his wife, Mabel B. James, last January, Barrie P. James was granted a decree by Judge York yesterday on the ground of desertion. He told the court that Mrs. James declined to live with him. She went to the home of her parents in Spokane, Wash., and failed to effect a reconciliation. The couple, who were married in Spokane in 1904, separated in Santa Barbara in 1916.

SAYS HE WAS DRUNK.

James Butler, a cook employed by a Spring-street restaurant, was given thirty days in the County Jail yesterday by United States District Judge Bledsoe, for purchasing a half dozen bottles of beer for three soldiers at Venice, last Sunday. Butler said he was drunk when he did it.

TO CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Will of Late Mary R. Kendall Leaves Five Thousand to Institution.

Leaving an estate valued "in excess of $50,000," the will of Mrs. Mary R. Kendall was filed for probate yesterday. Mrs. Kendall died at her home in Hollywood last Saturday. A cousin, F. S. Richmond, was given the deceased's residence, "Heartsease," at No. 7070 Franklin avenue, valued at $20,000. The Children's Hospital of Los Angeles was remembered with a bequest of $5000, to become a part of a memorial endowment fund. Kendall and Thomas Kelly were given $15,000, while five cousins were remembered by gifts of $10,000 each.

The balance of the estate is to be put into a trust fund, the income form which is to be paid to a sister, Rebecca L. Richmond. At her death this trust fund is to be equally divided between the Butterworth Hospital of Grand Rapids, Mich., and the Home for Aged Women at Topeka, Kan.

MISSING WOMAN SOUGHT.

The disappearance of Miss Lillian Winters, 30 years old, was reported to the police yesterday by her uncle, A. W. Stork of No. 201 East Santa Barbara avenue. Miss Winters had been employed as a domestic at No. 2711 Budlong avepue. On Monday she wrote her uncle that her mind was "muddled" and asked him to go to the Budlong avenue address and get her belongings. The missing woman is despribed as of medium height and weight, with dark brown eyes and hair.

ON BOSSY'S BEHALF.

Mrs. May B. Cummings has a cow and no place to pasture it. When she paid $175 for the cow, she intended to pasture it on a lot she alleges she arranged to acquire from Mrs. David Arvery. Now the latter declines to deed the lot to Mrs. Cummings and she filed suit yesterday to compel Mrs. Arvery to carry out the alleged agreement.

ATHLETE IS TAKEN.

Philip F. Harrigan, Well Known Locally, Succumbs to Pneumonia Attack.

Philip F. Harrigan, prominent as a Los Angeles High School and Stanford University football star, died yesterday of pneumonia at his home, No. 807 South Berendo street. He was taken ill on Sunday on his return from a business trip to San Francisco. He was a salesman for Frank & Lewis, financial brokers, and was well known among bankers. Harrigan was 27 years old, and leaves a widow. The funeral will be held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the chapel of the Inglewood Cemetery, with only immediate members of the family in attendance. Burial will be at Inglewood Cemetery.

SUIT HOUSE INVOLVED.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court, yesterday, involving the Fair Cloak and Suit House, Inc., No. 247 Pine avenue, Long Beach. The petitioning creditors are Schneideran Bros., New York; the G. N. C. Skirt Manufacturing Company, New York, and Benjamin Smith, all with claims against the firm. It is charged that the corporation was guilty of an act of bankruptcy in making a statement that it was unable to pay its debts. W. H. Moore, Jr., was appointed receiver, with a bond fixed at $5000.

METHODISTS HASTEN.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 18.—Indications today were that the South Methodist district conference being held here may be closed before the scheduled time on account of a proposed ban on public meetings. The session was to have continued until Sunday evening, but Dist.-Atty. L. A. West advised this morning that business of the conference be carried through as rapidly as possible to prevent interference with the meetings by the possible closing up of large gatherings. Dr. C. C. Selecman of Los Angeles was scheduled to address the conference tonight.

Don't Experiment With Catarrh; It Often Leads to Dread Consumption

You Will Never Be Cured by Local Treatment With Sprays and Douches.

Catarrh is a condition of the blood and cannot be cured by local applications of sprays and douches; this has been proven by the thousands who have vainly resorted to this method of treatment.

Catarrh should not be neglected or experimented with. The wrong treatment is valuable time lost, during which the disease is getting a firmer hold upon its victim, and making it more difficult for even the proper treatment to accomplish results.

Though Catarrh makes its first appearance in the nostrils, throat and air passages, the disease becomes more and more aggravated and finally reaches down into the lungs, and everyone recognizes the alarming condition that results when the lungs are affected. Thus Catarrh may be the forerunner of that most dreaded and hopeless of all diseases, consumption.

No local treatment affords permanent relief. Experience has taught that S. S. S. is the one remedy which attacks the disease at its source, the blood, and produces satisfactory results in even the worst cases. Catarrh sufferers are urged to give S. S. S. a thorough trial. It is sold by all druggists. You are invited to write to the Medical Department for expert advice as to how to treat your own case. Address Swift Specific Co., 436 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

FUEL AND FLAME.

Now they are selling "coke breeze" by the ton. Sounds a good deal like the fuel used in firing up for the single-tax arguments.

VIENNA PRICES.

According to a letter recently received from a Latin-American residing in Vienna, milk now costs a dollar a quart, a man's suit costs $400 and men's shirts $50.

No wonder Austria wants peace and free trade.

NECK AND NECK.

Before the Civil War only one woman to ten men worked for wages and the one was usually engaged in domestic duties, at that. If the soldier is now counted out as a workman there are as many women as men receiving pay envelopes and they are breaking into fresh aisles of adventure with the dawn of each new day. They are doing everything but shave themselves.

SWISS POPULATION.

Between 1803 and 1915 naturalizations of foreigners in Switzerland totalled 2413. A Swiss newspaper recently stated that since the beginning of the war the single canton of Zurich has granted more than 15,000 naturalizations.

Little Switzerland, in the very heart of the war, but not of it, seems to be enjoying a unique popularity. She'll be making a war of "expansion" herself some day if the League of Nations doesn't watch out.

BRITISH INDIA'S QUOTA.

British India has subscribed $500,000,000 to its own recent "Liberty Loan." Its quota was $375,000,000, hence this "oppressed" portion of the British Empire, upon whose disaffection the Germans banked on the outset of the war, has exceeded its quota by $125,000,000. Shocking evidence of British "misrule" in India.

Apropos of India it is interesting to read in the result of the Bengal government's investigation of conspiracies in British India that California was the headquarters of German intrigue at this end. The report includes an amazing story regarding plans to import vast quantities of arms and ammunition with German aid via Los Angeles, Cal., in 1915, which was only circumvented by the loyalty of the Indians themselves.

MUSIC AND MEDICOS.

What new scare-bug has infected the members of our grave and potent Board of Health? Cafeteria patrons, on entering their usual places of eating, are now confronted with the following inexplicable notice: "Music discontinued for the present. By order of the Board of Health." What's the idea, gentlemen? Is the sound of festive music supposed to inspire the "flu" germ to nimbler activities, or is the human body held to be less easily infected if immersed in a bath of gloom? If this sort of thing continues we shall soon see posted up in the dry good stores of the city, "Further sale of neckwear forbidden, by order of the Board of Agriculture;" or perhaps a notice outside the Courthouse, "Issuance of marriage licenses suspended, by order of the State Commission for Abolishing Poverty."

BRITISH FRIGHTFULNESS.

An account appears in the London Times of September 20 of the strike of German prisoners working on the land in the west of England. It was a perfectly orderly and respectful strike in which the German prisoners gave as their reason for refusing to work that a company of "conscientious objectors" had been employed on the same land and they had "a conscientious objection to associating with men who were too cowardly to fight for their own country."

The strike was finally settled amicably by the authorities removing the party of English conscientious objectors to another field of operations.

The lot of the conscientious objectors is hard in England, when even the German prisoners shun them. All over England notices are shown in store and hotel windows to the effect that the trade of conscientious objectors is not invited. In towns where concentration camps have been established for the conscientious objectors it has sometimes become necessary to billet some of them upon the inhabitants. In every case the housewives have struck and refused to take them in, notwithstanding the profitable advantage the authorities pay for their keep. And now, even the German prisoners, on whose behalf the conscientious objector's conscience has worked overtime, regards it as a species of British frightfulness to be made to work in the same field.

The California prune joke has been adjourned. The rains cut the crop to the extent that prunes will figure among the luxuries next season.

GOOD MORNING! BUT, SAY—!!

GOOD morning, ladies. Good morning, gentlemen. Health and benediction. Peace be with you, and may the skin of a gooseberry make an umbrella for all your enemies.

But, before we go further, please come forth from the thresholds of your rooftrees that we may have a full look at you. Stand out in the middle of the road, where the glory of the California sunshine can envelop you on all four sides.

Your neighbors, your community, your county, your State and your country want to know this morning whether you are 100 per cent. American, or whether you are not.

This is one of the greatest mornings in history.

You never faced such a morning as this in all your life, and you will never again have a chance to face another like it.

Tonight either the spirits of Washington's soldiers, barefoot in the snow at Valley Forge, shall smile upon you in your glad slumbers, or you shall writhe in cold-sweating nightmares with Benedict Arnold roosted, gibbering, on the bed posts.

The dead who fell at Chateau Thierry and who sleep in Flanders' fields shall salute you with glorified faces, or you shall have for company the leering eyes of all the traitors that stabbed America in the back when its face was set against its foes.

You must now list yourselves as one thing or the other—Americans, or of that foul and squalid host for which there is no name.

You must turn your pockets inside out before God and your countrymen and show that you have given the last farthing that you were able to give to the Fourth Liberty Loan, or stand with a brand upon your brow that neither the hands of posterity nor all the tides of time will ever be able to wash away.

It is for you the most solemn and the most serious hour that you have seen or that you will ever see again.

It is an hour when the Hun watches you to see if you will give your dollars as freely and as fully as the soldiers of freedom have given their blood and their lives.

If you fail to give your dollars, then the Hun is not whipped, though he stands stripped and disarmed and the banners of the free peoples float from every housetop in Berlin.

For, if you shall not kill the soul of Attila, you shall kill his body and throw it to the dogs in vain.

II.

GOOD morning, Sir Richman; good morning, Messieurs the Butcher, the Baker and the Candlestick Maker.

Good morning, Madame of the limousine; good morning, lady of the wash tub.

You all look good to your country. And, it might be said, that you could all change places, and maybe be the happier for it, or not. It is hard to say, for happiness is not a thing that depends on money or the lack of it.

But, there is one way in which it were impossible for you to change places, and that is as Americans. Rich and poor, alike, you are all Americans.

The ground upon which you walk or ride, the sky over you, the very air you breathe, it is all America. All that you have, be it little or much; all that you can ever hope to have in dollars, in liberty or in life, you owe to America.

Now America needs you. More than that, freedom needs you. More than even that, God needs you. And you must meet that need or deserve to stand deserted not only of your country and freedom, but of God Himself.

You are simply being tried. You are being given a chance. The strong arm of the nation can reach out and take every dollar you have and every shingle of the roof that shelters you, if need be.

Wherefore, it is simply that the opportunity is afforded you to do of your own free will, and out of your sense of justice and gratitude, that which you can be forced to do whether you like it or no.

It will be in vain that anyone shall attempt to find sanctuary in pretenses. No misrepresentation of facts will go undetected. The searchlight in the dome of the Capitol at Washington penetrates all the highways and byways of America. It X-rays every one of us to the bare skin.

Not only must we answer to God on the Great Day, not only must we answer to the immortal dead who sleep between the Vosges and the Marne, but we shall have to answer tomorrow to our neighbor and to the flag.

It must well be that you do not sense the gravity of the moment, ladies and gentlemen. It must be, else the Fourth Liberty Loan in Los Angeles were subscribed and oversubscribed many days ago, and this utterance were a paean of glory and not a trumpet call to grapple with your souls at the last hour.

Stand out there in the middle of the road. Let's have a look at your pockets!

III.

THESE honest-to-God Americans, who are giving their time and the last ounce of their energies to put the Liberty Loan over the top—men and women who are not being paid even $1 a year for their services—have some very eloquent records in their card indexes.

There is, for instance, the case of a man with a family of five, whose salary is $65 a month. This man has subscribed to each Liberty Loan as it came along, and has subscribed to the Fourth Loan. You can easily figure out his monthly payments on his bonds and see what he has left.

What is the mark on this man's brow? What is the stamp on his soul? Oh, men and brethren, he is an American, simon pure; 100 per cent.; American clear through.

Then, there is the case of a man who has $10,000 in available funds and who has subscribed for one $50 bond. He not only prefers to loan his money at 7 and 8 per cent. to private borrowers instead of loaning it to his country on Liberty Bonds, but he insists on his present privilege to do so.

What is the mark on this man's brow? What is the stamp on his soul?

What shall he answer to God on the last Great Day? What answer can he make to the spirits of the dead who died that the world might be free and that outraged Belgium might be restored and bleeding France healed of her wounds?

When the line

"—that for Gabriel's trumpet waits,
Will stretch three deep, that day,
From Jehoshaphat to the Golden Gates,"

What shall this man say? What will Ethan Allen say to him; and what shall the accusing souls of all those who died for liberty everywhere say to him?

But, does anyone suppose that the dollar traitor—and he is the most squalid and the meanest of all traitors—will have to wait for the Day of Judgment to have meted out to him the scorn he earns and the just deserts that shall be his?

No, indeed. He will be marked and branded here and now. He is known and he will be made known until his name becomes a byword and a reproach. The wealth of Croesus were futile to shield him. He shall be anathema.

IV.

IT WAS A great idea to put the raising of these sacred war funds up to the free will of the people instead of clamping the screws on them as the government could have done had it been so minded.

In this way the wind shall be taken out of the boasters. The false alarms must ring off.

And it is glorious the way so many communities have accepted and answered the challenge. Madera county, in this State, oversubscribed its quota the very first day of the drive—a county of farmers and lumbermen and mill men; folks without frills; just plain 100 per cent. Americans.

Many other counties and cities in America, thousands of them, in fact, have done as well or almost as well as Madera.

But Los Angeles lags. She stands in danger of a disgrace that she will not be able to wipe out in a thousand years.

Be assured, ladies and gentlemen, as you stand forth on this big, sunny, God's morning, that the wind will be taken out of our boastings if we fail to have balanced the books tonight. The name that has been builded for us through a century of tireless endeavor shall become a sneer in the mouth of the world if we fail in this that is now our solemn necessity to do.

If we were not able to do it, we would have an excuse. But, we are able to do it. The world knows it, and we know it ourselves.

It is the eleventh hour, and something like a miracle must happen to pull us through. But, we can't bring ourselves to believe that tonight will end in disgrace—the first disgrace that was ever ours if it come.

There is no time left to wait upon the calls of the solicitors. You must find them and subscribe. You must go to the banks and subscribe. Keep them open till midnight and after, if you must.

It is the great hour. God forbid that we should be weighed in the balance and found wanting.

KEEP COOL AND KEEP WELL!

At its worst any epidemic takes but a relatively small toll of the population, and as a rule the majority of people are resistant to the assaults of the worst of disease germs, including influenza, if they but take ordinary care of themselves. This is important. The mere fact that the incidence of the grip at the outset looks ominous is all the more reason for meeting the issue with confidence and absolute resoluteness. Whatever medical science may advise as to prevention or as to treatment, one simple fact that outweighs everything else is that if every individual will but follow the normal life he has led, eat those things that are suited to his system, things he has always eaten with resulting good health, rest and sleep as usual and avoid overfatigue while carrying on his work, also as usual, he will escape the grip. There is no excuse for any panic. The authorities are taking excessive precautions, it is true, but these should react surely and quickly to the benefit of all. Above all, the individual should remember that the first and last rule to follow in this state of things is to keep cool and keep well. For the man who keeps cool will keep well, and the man who keeps well and has all his faculties about him will keep cool. This is no time for official or individual collective hysteria.—[Philadelphia Ledger.

It is a paradoxical thing that the Arabs whose ancestors drove the Christians from the Holy Land are now aiding them in the work of reconquest, and the Christians are willing to help the Arabs in driving the Turks from the holy cities of Mahomet.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

MAKING WAR.

For fifty years or thereabouts on this, our native shore, no captains raised their martial shouts or made demands for gore. Along the sunny paths of peace we took our genial way, and dealt in poultry, eggs and grease, in bacon, corn and hay. Whate'er we did, we did it well, we did with all our might; and all the goods we had to sell skinned everything in sight. At last we had to draw the sword and give a helping hand to nations which were being bored by Wilhelm's high command. And at this graft of war we went as we'd go baling hay; we said, "A scrap was never meant to last till Judgment Day. Let's take the contract on the run and shove the blamed thing through; since we must whip the greasy Hun, let's do it P.D.Q." And all the planet is amazed at how we do our stunt; a host of fighting men we've raised and sent them to the front. Since we took hold the luck has changed, we're winning with a whoop, and Bill, his system disarranged, is neck deep in the soup. It is the good old Yankee way to do things with a rush; it is the way we reap our hay and hustle after cush.

WALT MASON.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

Some people can't even buy a Liberty Bond without music. They like it loud and plentiful. Lots of people are charming the "flu" away with music. You see it is understood to have charms that soothe the savage breast. I rather suspect that is why so many of my friends put a record on the phonograph directly I enter their houses, usually beginning with "Smiles" and ending with "The Perfect Day." That's how I know that there are hundreds of thousands of records and phonographs in this city that could, with grace, be given away.

This is a campaign I take a personal interest in. It appears the boys in the camps, on the ships, in the lonely outposts and over in France crave for phonographs and records. And on October 26 a first-class drive will be started to cull records and music boxes by the million for the good purpose. Personally I can't think why anyone should crave the things, but, since they do, bless them, I pray with a heartfelt fervency that all my friends will rally to the good cause and make their sacrifices generously, nobly and give away every lota of canned music they possess.

For one thing, canned music gets worn out quicker in army camps and on board ships, so one can't be too generous about it. In an apartment-house, a cheap restaurant, a semi-detached bungalow, a boarding-house or at a civic-center meeting phonographs and records can only be appreciated by such a very irreducible minimum of people. Everybody else wants to throw the furniture about or commit murder and wallow in blood. Music has always been regarded as an excellent stimulant of the material spirit on this account, notwithstanding that little maxim about soothing the savage breast. It may soothe the savage breast by sheer force of ultra-savage superiority, but, under appropriate circumstances, it can make the mildest pacifist into a raging bloodthirsty warrior.

It is therefore quite obvious that it is our duty to every mother's boy in the army, with memories of placid domesticity and untrammeled freedom, clean shirts, bathrooms, silk socks and giddy ties, piles of clean handkerchiefs and breakfast at 9 a.m. to send them all the phonographs and records they jolly well want. In that way we can help to inculcate the necessary savagery for going over the top and telling the Germans what we really think of them.

And as it is eminently desirable that the noncombatants at home keep calm and avoid civil war, that is another excellent reason for waxing generous over any old kind of a musical instrument one happens to have on the premises. Think of the neighborhood sorrows they have caused. Think of the wrath they have wasted right here at home that could have been used to such advantage on the battle front. Oh, by all means give the things away, give 'em all away, and let's have peace and good will in the neighborhood, no matter what sort of a Hades of a racket they cause subsequently for the Germans.

Of course some people adore phonographs. They should be the very first to give 'em away. Oh, certainly. Because they will not only have a finer understanding of the yearning need of the army and navy, but will receive the united blessings of their neighbors as well as for their most [illegible] sacrifice. The more sentim[illegible] one is about phonographs, the more one should avoid them in private life. It's such a wicked form of inebriation. But canned music, like fighting, is perfectly proper in the army and navy. Circumstances alter cases. Morals are geographical. One man's meat is another man's poison. Send the boys your canned music—and love your neighbor a shade more than yourself. It will hasten the glad day of peace in more ways than one.

"JUSTICE" IN GERMAN COURTS.

"For one of our Anglo-Saxon race and legal traditions to understand conditions in Belgium during the German occupation," writes Brand Whitlock, in Everybody's for October, "it is necessary to banish resolutely from the mind every conception of right we have inherited from our ancestors.

"These so-called courts, of whose irresponsible and brutal nature I have tried to convey some notion, were mere inquisitorial bodies, guided by no principle save that of interest in their own bloody nature. Before them the accused had literally no rights, not even to present a defense, and if he was permitted to speak in his own behalf it was only as a generous and liberal favor.

"The defense was not a defense in our meaning of the word. The lawyer was not allowed to see his client before he appeared to plead the case before the court where the accused was arraigned for trial, and he was not permitted to speak to his client during the trial; often he did not know what the accusation was until the trial began, and sometimes he did not know it even then.

"The court would admit hearsay, presumptions, and conclusions, and inferences, and innuendoes, so long as they were on behalf of the prosecution; there was no cross-examination, sometimes even no interrogatory on the part of the presiding judge. The accused was sometimes allowed to present a defense, but it was, generally only such as he might contrive in sparring with the judges if they questioned him. He had no process for witnesses in his own behalf, and no right to have them heard even when they were willing to appear."

Hooverizing.

The Emporia Gazette's military critic, who is said to belong to a rah-rah war college, and has a college yell that sounds like a one-legged man crossing a railroad bridge, submits this prediction, which has also passed the censor of the food administration: "If we have Turkey for Thanksgiving dinner we shall cook the Kaiser's goose for Christmas."—[Kansas City Star.

BANKER WILLIAMS HELD.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18.—Charles L. Williams, former vice-president of the American National Bank, charged with the embezzlement of $59,000 of the funds of the bank, was today bound over to the Federal Court by United States Commissioner C. E. Burch, to await the action of the Federal grand jury. Williams was held on $15,000 bail, which was paid by friends.

It was brought out in the testimony this morning that certain bank documents are missing, having been destroyed or removed from the vaults of which Charles G. Schultze, recently convicted of disloyalty, was the custodian. It was also shown that Williams had numerous accounts in the bank, having acted as a trustee or treasurer for almost a score of enterprises, including Republican political organizations, private estates and others.

John F. Forward, Jr., a vice-president of the bank, testified that Williams admitted that his action in directing the note teller to take the notes amounting to $16,663.12 out of his cash items while the bank examiner was there, was irregular.

Following the testimony of the government, which rested at noon the defense offered no evidence but a motion was made by Attorney L. E. Dadnum that Williams be acquitted on the grounds there was not sufficient evidence to hold him.

Dist.-Atty. Robert O'Connor and Attorney Dadnum argued the case before Commissioner Burch, who bound Williams over.

Riverside Residents Defendants in Suit Over Real Estate Transaction.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 18.—Suit for the collection of a $5000 fee for the services claimed to have been rendered in arranging for a real estate transfer, which eventually fell through, has been brought against Mrs. E. N. Alexandrian and C. P. Stone of this city by T. E. Weatherholt and N. J. Cordary of Los Angeles. The complaint states that the defendants made an agreement covering the exchange of properties valued at $200,500, located in Riverside, Orange and Imperial counties, and that they later refused to make the exchange provided for in the agreement. The stipulated fee of $5000 is accordingly sought through the court.

POMONA S.A.T.C. INCREASED TO 325.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CLAREMONT, Oct. 18.—Induction of students into the S.A.T.C. at Pomona College is proceeding daily, the time limit having been extended from October 15 to 20. By the middle of the week 225 men had already been inducted, and at that time orders were received from Washington to proceed to the limit of 325.

As nearly a hundred more men are on the waiting list, it is anticipated that Pomona's full allotment will be reached. Men can still be inducted after the 20th inst., but through the agency of their local draft board, which will entail a greater amount of time.

Maj. Charles B. Vogdes, commanding officer of the S.A.T.C., is now assisted by three army officers on the personnel staff, Lieut. Eugene Nixon, Sage Hen coach, Lieut. Thomas Davis and Lieut. F. J. Moran; the latter has been detailed here from Santa Clara.

NO COMPROMISE WITH ASSASSIN OF BERLIN.

ONTARIO G.A.R. VETERANS EXPRESS WAR ATTITUDE IN RESOLUTION.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ONTARIO, Oct. 18.—Members of Ontario post, No. 124, Grand Army of the Republic, in session today adopted a resolution urging no compromise with Germany, reparation for all Hun damage, and prosecution of the war until the Kaiser is decisively beaten. The resolution, bearing the attest of Commander W. F. Steele and Quartermaster J. D. Sargeant, recites:

Many of us were at the siege and capture of Vicksburg, Gibraltar of the West, when 32,000 prisoners were taken. We all served in the Federal army in the defense of the Union and our flag. Our attitude is the attitude of ninety-nine of every one hundred of the boys who wore the blue from 1861 to 1865.

First—No compromise with the Kaiser and his cowardly cut-throat thieves. We must not temporize with an enemy whose hands are crimsoned with the blood of innocent men, women and children.

Second—We demand reparation from Germany for every dollar's worth of private property that belonged to the Allies that has been destroyed by the German army.

Third—We are in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war until the Kaiser and his bloodthirsty gang are badly whipped and brought to their knees. Then the Allied powers will have the legal and the moral right to dictate the terms of peace, and that will bring the Kaiser to time.

At this very moment, the assassin of Berlin is a whining cur, while his army is being beaten and driven back all the way from the North Sea to Verdun, and as that army retreats it leaves in its wake a scene of utter ruin and desolation.

The Allies are fighting for democracy, humanity, justice and the rights of men, while the Central Powers are waging the war to perpetuate autocracy, injustice and oppression.

SCHOOL GIRLS FILL PLACES OF STRIKERS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 18. — A strike of girls employed as cullers at the Goleta walnut house has been quickly settled by fifty schoolgirls from Santa Barbara taking the places of fifteen strikers. The management had discovered that a few agitators had planned to demand a raise of pay at intervals until they had run the wage up from $2 a day to $4.50 and higher. Fifteen girls struck, fifteen remaining loyal.

The directors of the Walnut Growers' Association have raised the price of meat picking from 6½ cents to 12 cents a pound, a higher price than ever paid before in the history of the walnut industry in this county. So far the association has shipped 122 tons of walnuts.

The association has just completed a new walnut house at Goleta to handle the nuts grown in Carpinteria and Goleta, and today a check for $23,500 was paid to the contractors, clearing off all indebtedness on the new plant, which is modern in every detail.

THE "FLU" MAY CHEAT HANGMAN.

Condemned Murderer Seriously Ill with Malady in Orange Hospital.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 18.—Spanish influenza may cheat the law in the case of Edward Keyes, who grinned yesterday when December 20 was set as the date for his hanging at San Quentin for the brutal murder last December of 11-year-old Leonard Herwick of Santa Ana.

It looks now as if Keyes may not live until December 20, for he is apparently suffering from pneumonia following an influenza attack, and his temperature jumped today to 104½. He was removed from the jail to the County Hospital for treatment.

The influenza has gone hard with county prisoners here. Several became ill and three died, although most of those afflicted have recovered.

ALTHOUGH HE'S DEAD HE STILL FIGHTS ON.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 18.—George G. Christensen's body lies in a French cemetery where he was buried after being killed while fighting the Hun, but his fight is not over. The government insurance money which is being paid his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Christensen of Tustin, is carrying on the fight through the Liberty Loan.

"We will let George's money fight for him," say the soldier patriots' parents.

They now have two other sons in their country's service, Norman and Bryan. Norman is with the marines in France and Bryan is in the navy.

George Christensen was stationed in the marine recruiting office at Los Angeles for several months before he was sent overseas early this year.

The three-unit gin will be placed in position as soon as the foundations are completed.

EXPECT 500 DELEGATES.

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 18.—According to J. C. The federation held a meeting in Kern county in 1911, and with the success of that convention fresh in the minds of many of the delegates it was an easy matter to get the convention for Bakersfield in 1919.

"Is it young?" is the natural inquiry of a woman buying fowls. That quality is just as desirable in a ham. Those tender, juicy meat fibres are not found in meats which are more than mature.

Puritan Hams are "young" as evidenced by the thin, smooth skin. Such hams more readily yield to the delicate flavoring materials of the Puritan process producing that result of superiority.

AMERICA SEEKS SIBERIA TRADE.

Wilson Sets Aside Five Million to Exploit It.

Committee will Handle Traffic for Far East.

Food and Supplies Closely to Follow Army.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President Wilson has set aside $5,000,000 from his war fund of $100,000,000 for the economic penetration of Russia and Siberia. This fund and its expenditure is in the hands of a commission of three men, Vance McCormick, chairman of the War Trade Board; Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, and Herbert Hoover, Food Administrator for the United States.

The actual management of this fund is in the hands of Chairman McCormick, as the representative of the State Department on the War Trade Board. August Bikir has been made the representative of this board at Vladivostok and Archangel and he is now organizing to keep American trade up with the flag.

One of the principal objects of this penetration of Siberia and the other conquered portions of Russia is to have supplies as fast as the Allied armies move up. This is to prevent dissatisfaction and hostility due to a well-fed, well-equipped army operating in territory where the populace have no luxuries and few necessities.

Food and, other imperatively-needed supplies will be right up along with the troops to supply these civilians. The five million fund is practically to guarantee shippers and merchants against loss in taking part in this world trade campaign. Shipping Board authorities are arranging for sufficient shipping to carry all trade needs in this connection.

Lists of exports are being prepared and great activity is being shown to arrange for return cargoes so that the ships will be not have to return in ballast. Much of this return cargo is wool, furs and similar products.

One plan is to have the ships stop on their return at Manila and other Philippine ports to bring back hardwood, cigars, sugar and unmanufactured tobacco and other island products. Practically all this trade has been temporarily suspended, due to the need of cargo space of the Siberian and Russian movement, and some way of caring for it must be made.

INFLUENZA INCREASES, HEALTH SERVICE SAYS.

REPORTS FROM THIRTY-FIVE STATES SHOW PEST SPREADING, ESPECIALLY EAST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Reports to the public health service today from thirty-five States showed Spanish influenza still increasing in most parts of the country. Conditions in army camps also were less favorable, the 4781 new cases reported to noon today showing the disease apparently was stationary after a marked decline for several days.

The epidemic still is more pronounced in the eastern section of the country, due undoubtedly to the more crowded conditions in the large cities. Up to October 16 New Jersey had reported 107,839 cases with 2222 deaths. In New York City 4731 cases of influenza, with 836 deaths and 646 cases of pneumonia with 237 deaths were reported yesterday.

Deaths in Pennsylvania up to October 15 were placed at 10,046. In Delaware the epidemic apparently was subsiding. Fewer cases also were reported from Massachusetts, but in Maine, Rhode Island and New Hampshire the disease still was epidemic. Maryland reported many new cases, as did Virginia. North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi.

The epidemic continues in the Middle West. Louisville and five other cities in Kentucky have many new cases, while Indiana yesterday reported 2688 new cases outside of Indianapolis, where the disease is epidemic. Ohio reported the malady as prevalent in thirteen cities of that State.

Missouri and Colorado reported epidemics in seven cities each, and Kansas in seven cities and many counties. The disease was reported from six cities and several counties in New Mexico. The epidemic is widespread in Arizona.

Idaho reported new cases from five cities; South Dakota reported the disease throughout the State; Wyoming reported 2500 cases during the past week; Montana reported 2000 new cases during the week ending October 12.

Although influenza cases in army camps increased slightly, the number of pneumonia cases, 1899, decreased during the twenty-four-hour period ending at noon today. Deaths were 657, against 644 yesterday. Influenza cases reported from all camps since the epidemic began total 279,945, pneumonia cases 42,676, and deaths 13,681.

ALL MEETINGS BANNED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—All theaters and motion-picture houses in the State were ordered closed without delay as a result of the Spanish influenza epidemic at a meeting of the State Board of Health here today.

Schools and churches were ordered to remain open where not closed by local authorities, Dr. George E. Ebright, the president of the board, said.

"The move is mostly precautionary. The situation is being well handled and there is no occasion for hysteria," Dr. Ebright said.

All public assemblages other than those mentioned were ordered dispensed with, except those absolutely necessary for war work or the public welfare.

The use of plenty of soap and water in place of sterilization, the thorough ventilation of all common carriers, schools and churches and the strict isolation of all cases were urged. Quarantine measures were not recommended, except where a general spread of the disease was threatened.

Theodore A. Bell of Napa has canceled his speaking tour as independent candidate for Governor because of the prevalence of Spanish influenza, Bell's headquarters announced here today.

Open-air masses will be celebrated by at least two Roman Catholic churches on Sunday. St. Mary's Cathedral secured permission of the board to hold masses on the Cathedral steps and Mission Dolores Church in the church gardens.

Spanish influenza cases are increasing, but the number of deaths is decreasing in San Francisco, Dr. William C. Hassler, city health officer, said today. Physicians reported 390 cases before noon with eight deaths. Fifteen deaths were reported yesterday.

All schools, theaters and other places of public assemblage were closed today.

CHICAGO.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Dr. John Dill Robertson, Health Commissioner of Chicago, is going to vaccinate everybody in Chicago against pneumonia following influenza. He plans that 100,000 persons shall receive the preventive each day until all are immune.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18.—In its efforts to prevent further spread of influenza, the health board issued an order requiring every person employed in catering to the public to wear a gauze face mask to cover the mouth and nose.

Among those affected are clerks in the large stores and employees of factories, waiters, barbers, bartenders and grocery clerks.

The Red Cross is working night and day to supply these masks.

DES MOINES, Oct. 18.—Cancellation of the draft movement scheduled for October 21 when 2500 Iowans were to go to Camp Greenleaf, Lytle, Ga., and Fort MacArthur, Cal., was announced today by Adjt.-Gen. Lasher. This action was recommended by Gov. Harding because of the influenza situation.

LOBSTER CALLS OUT DEATH CAR.

Sleeping Man Mistaken for Corpse When Crustacean Smells Too High.

Officer Jack Munson dashed up on his motorcycle to a cottage on Dorothy avenue, Venice, yesterday afternoon, closely followed by the undertaker's ambulance of O. J. Kirkelle, only to have a supposed corpse sit up and declare that he was Jpmsed Dubash, a Persian fisherman, and very much alive.

A strong odor which had reached a passing mail carrier, Dubash declared, had come from an over-boiled lobster.

The mail carrier had looked through the window, and, seeing the supposedly dead man on a couch, notified the police. The fisherman said he had fallen asleep.

AFTER-WAR FOOD PRICES.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

The right of every man to do what he will with his own and to make his own for himself out of his dealings with his fellow-man as the laws of competition would permit, and the watchfulness over his trade, now with a "hands off" policy by government and rival, has been more than one body blow to the requirements of the millions of the country became so great as to result in the taking over, by one, of the former perogatives which the average American of commerce so prided of the latest and at the same time revolutionary measures is that which became effective July 16, which requires the publication in every retail grocery store a bulletin board, upon which be proclaimed the cost to the retailer, side by side with the selling price to the consumer.

This order aroused a storm of protest. It was first broached, but when it came to be understood that the opposition disappeared and when the rule finally became effective last Tuesday there was little acquiescence.

The new rule is of interest to every man and the man with the smallest income is obvious from the fact that which they crowd about the boards and scan the posted prices. many of them the display is a revelation, for, instead of the "highway robbery" of which they accused their grocer of being guilty they were set to thinking how he could sell many of the price he has been getting and still maintain a margin of profit.

The plan is really a protection to the dealer, is the opinion of the Commercial Bulletin, which says that when the American people thoroughly convinced that the danger is gone they will turn their attention to ascertaining why prices are high, and when they understand that the reason for the high prices is actually based upon the immutable law of supply and demand, and the profit of the jobber has not increased in proportion to the cost of the article, much of the consumers dissatisfaction will be dissipated, or at least diverted.

Speaking of high prices, I have recently talked with a number of wholesale produce men, grocers and dealers in various foodstuffs. Without exception, they all say that the era of high prices will go on for some time after the war, and that the high cost of living may be a great deal higher then than it is now.

Their reason for so pessimistic an outlook seems based on logical grounds. Europe is almost literally starving, they say; she is getting by on just enough emergency rations to maintain life and strength, but as soon as the great shipping tonnage is released from transport requirements there will be an insistent demand upon this country for food. Reserve stocks will be wiped out, and at least until conditions are partially readjusted and crops planted and harvested the burden of feeding the world will rest more heavily upon the United States than it does now, when our chief obligation is to see that the army is properly fed.

We must not imagine that with the end of the war our troubles are to drop from our shoulders as easily as we discard a loose dressing gown. The problems of peace will be even mightier than those of war, and farseeing men of finance and of business are warning against a letting go of all holds when the cannons cease their roar. That is to be a time to try our metal as completely as when the battle rages, and upon the sane, careful, far-sighted grasping and meeting of the unheard of issues of peace will very largely depend the historian's judgment of the ability of this country to measure up to the opportunities which are soon to be here.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Ignoring warnings of high authorities at home and abroad against undue optimism regarding the war's early ending, traders and a large following of the public today again gave vent to another bullish demonstration.

Sales of stocks amounted to 1,500,000 shares, the range of advances ranging from 2 to 8 points in representative stocks and from 15 points in others of more speculative character.

Leading among the latter was Mexican Petroleum, which rose on heavy buying from 158 1-4 to 174, and closed at 183, a net gain of 24½ points.

Tobacco, another oil stock, showed extreme gain of 19 points, a large part of which was recovered. Texas Company was also active at an extreme advance.

Sales were consistently large, ranging from 2 to 7 points, Baldwin and American Locomotive, Southern Pacific and other transcontinentals, also coalers and trunk lines in unusual demand.

United States Steel, which furnished over 20 per cent. of the day's turnover, the largest of the year, caught in stride in the final hour, riding almost 3½ points and closing within a fraction of its best.

War shares and marines were under marked restraint during the early session, the latter yielding on further delay in consummation of the deal with British capitalists, but the munition and ordnance stocks caught up with the bouyant movements at the close, gaining 1 to 3 points.

Convertible issues were the strong features of the bond market, Liberty issues displaying decided irregularity, with no especial feature to the international group. Total sales (par value,) aggregated $11,506,000. Old United States bonds registered no change on call.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Liberty Bonds, closing prices, 3½s, 99.90; First convertible 4s, 97.62; second 4s, 97.16. First convertible 4 1-4s, 97.70; second convertible 4 1-4s, 97.20; third 4 1-4s, 97.26.

greatest problem in arithmetic has been solved.

Imbued with the spirit of the hour, employees of the Los Angeles Railway met at noon and added $50,000 to their former subscription of $100,000.

Members of the Los Angeles Grain Exchange added $50,000 to their subscription, making a total of $211,000.

Los Angeles employees of the Standard Oil Company enrolled for an additional $87,000, an average of $200 each.

The George H. Merrill Company of Norwood, Mass., sent $5000 to be counted for Los Angeles.

The Amalgamated Oil Company went on the Honor Roll for $15,000 additional, and the Pacific Mutual took $100,000 more to be added to their already large subscription.

Every member of the Custom House force reported "present" yesterday and their average was raised to $200 per man.

Riverside is the first Southern California county to report 100 per cent. to the Federal Reserve Bank.

Pacific Electric employees have subscribed $375,200, an average of 91 per cent. of the 4595 employees and an average of $90 for each subscribing employee. A strong effort is being made to bring this up to $100. In addition the company has lost 420 of its men to the service and many more will leave with the next draft.

The Croatian Committee started out to raise $50,000 among the comparatively few members of that race in this city. Up to last night their subscriptions totalled $125,000. There is a lesson for regular Americans in those figures. The proprietor and employees of the Louis Cafe have subscribed $4000, which really means more than the figures convey. Yes, it's 100 per cent. and then some.

Mrs. Fitzhugh of Twenty-third and Maple avenue, 81 years old, and of very slender means, bought a $50 bond. She said she remembered that she purchased $600 worth of government bonds during the Civil War and after the war she sold her bonds for $750.

Lee Rose of West Eleventh street brought to headquarters $1350, every cent either he or his wife possessed, he said. He was asked his reason for making such a complete investment of his worldly goods. "I came to this country from Russia," was his answer.

The active newspaper women having subscribed what they supposed was their limit, met yesterday and added $650, and in a communication to Mrs. J. T. Anderson, chairman of the National Women's Liberty Loan Committee, stated that in each case the subscription meant actual sacrifice, but "we wish to go on record as meeting, to the fullest degree, the responsibilities of citizenship in this crisis."

Outside districts working directly under Mrs. Anderson are showing splendid results. Gardena reports $60,850; Laguna, $21,000; Hollywood precincts, $1,281,950; San Fernando precincts, $120,000, of which amount the Women's Committee secured $15,500; San Pedro, exclusive of shipyards, $137,400, of which the Women's Committee secured $185,-250.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico City wired The Times yesterday that a strong effort was being made to double Mexico's $1,000,000 Liberty Loan quota, and that they were "nearing the goal." Secretary Lansing, the message said, was cabling consuls throughout the world commending Mexico's showing.

The town of San Fernando is over the top by $30,000. Her quota was $90,000, and her subscriptions up to yesterday $129,000. Out of a population of 3000 the town furnished 800 subscribers, a record said to be unequalled hereabouts. F. W. Prince is chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee of San Fernando.

With subscriptions totaling over $385,000 the employees of the Southwestern Shipbuilding Company at East San Pedro have not only gone over the top by raising the full quota allotted to the yard, but are confident that they will be awarded the pennant for the Los Angeles district for the greatest per capita subscription.

"I do not see how it is possible for any other plant to win out in the face of our showing," said A. O. Zinn, who has had charge of the campaign, yesterday. "With 3200 men on our pay roll, we have averaged better than $100 per man. This is a remarkable showing when you consider that this is a new yard still doing much construction work with an unusually large number of laboring men, who are not receiving large wages.

"Last Wednesday after J. Stitt Wilson made his talk in the yard the men subscribed over $50,000, practically all of which was in additional subscriptions. We are feeling the effects of that speech yet. The following day the night gang with only 400 men on duty pledged $7600 in additional subscriptions.

Under the direction of twenty-six principals, public school-teachers tried their hand at selling Liberty Bonds on the streets in the business district yesterday and the sales totaled $30,700. Manual Arts High School-teachers won first honors, with sales amounting to $4750. Miss Lillian E. Waite of the Macy-street school, with Miss Mary Canepa and Miss Iva Washington as team-mates, took first individual honors by selling a $1000 bond to Morel Nickerson of New Raymer, Colo., who invested although he said he had already bought heavily in his home town.

The teachers are going out today to wind up the drive with a great demonstration of patriotic energy. They are working under the direction of the women's city and county organization, of which Mrs. J. T. Anderson is chairman. All teachers, including those at Pasadena, are requested to be at room 13, City Hall, at 9 o'clock this morning to receive their literature and instructions.

PUTS UP LIBERTY BOND.

Well-known Long Beach Man Charged with Being Slacker Puts Up "Kaiser Chaser" as Surety.

J. E. Dunbar, who is known in the financial and business circles of Long Beach as "Bert" Dunbar, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Long, yesterday, on the charge of having failed to register under the Selective Draft Act, September 12. He put up a $500 Liberty Bond for his appearance later to answer the charge.

Mr. Dunbar says that he is 46 years of age, but it is charged that he is younger than that. He has sent East for a copy of the old family bible, a volume that he says will make good his claim. Mr. Dunbar was in Northern California on last registration day, on a hunting trip, and says he would have registered if he had been within the age prescribed by the regulations.

Mr. Dunbar is one of the best-known men in Long Beach, where he has interests worth in excess of $100,000. His holdings on Pine and Ocean avenue are among the most important on that thoroughfare. He is a heavy subscriber to Liberty Bonds of all issues.

Among the exhibits of the government in his case, it is said, is the marriage license issued to Dunbar in 1908, according to which he would now be but 43 years old.

LET SLACKERS BEWARE!

Reserve District Board Approves Plan to Pillory Loan Shirkers.

As its last appeal to patriots in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign, the following statement was issued last night by the Southern California Liberty Loan State Central Committee:

TO THE PUBLIC:

The following resolution was adopted today:

"Resolved, that the general executive board of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District approve the publication, whenever considered necessary by the local Liberty Loan committees, and where careful investigation has first been made, of the names of persons, firms or corporations who without good excuse have failed to subscribe to the Fourth Liberty Loan or have made flagrantly inadequate subscriptions."

The above telegram received today from the general executive board speaks for itself in connection with the local committee's early determination to follow this course of action through to its logical conclusion.

More important than the publication of any list of names after the campaign is over, however, is the publication of names going on now in every neighborhood in the city through the publicly displayed honor rolls at each of the more than 700 precinct headquarters.

The responsibility for failure in this loan will be too great to rest on the shoulders of a few isolated offenders. For that reason, the precinct roll has been established that district by district, block by block, house by house, and name by name, the real responsibility shall be placed where it rightfully belongs.

To every fellow resident of this city we of the committee have but two questions to ask before looking to the final result:

IS YOUR NAME REGISTERED AS A SUBSCRIBER AT YOUR PRECINCT HEADQUARTERS?

HAS YOUR NEIGHBOR'S NAME BEEN SO REGISTERED AND FOR AN ADEQUATE AMOUNT?

Southern California Liberty Loan State Central Committee,

H. S. McKEE, Chairman.

R. H. MOULTON, Campaign Manager.

LESLIE B. HENRY, Representative, Federal Reserve Bank.

RUSSELL H. BALLARD, Director, Precinct Organization.

MRS. J. T. ANDERSON, Chairman, Woman's Committee.

GIFT BONDS SELL FAST.

About $8000 was added yesterday to the "Buy a Bond for Him" fund, making $12,000 altogether. When the returns are all in, it may be that this amount was greatly exceeded, for Precinct Director Ballard has heard from only a few of the thousands of attractive gift cards which The Times supplied and which are to travel overseas to bring cheer and hope and a glow of pride to "our soldier."

All that is necessary to secure one of these cards is to show a bond payment receipt bearing date of October 17, 18, or 19, either at the main office of The Times, First street and Broadway; at the branch office, No. 320 South Spring street, at almost any precinct headquarters, or at general headquarters, No. 719 South Hill street. A good many of the precinct workers are also equipped with them. The card, which is printed in colors and is a fine Christmas gift, informs the soldier that a bond has been deposited for him at his Los Angeles bank by the sender as an inadequate expression of appreciation.

Nearly every one who asked for the bond card yesterday expressed approval of the plan and not a few explained that although they had subscribed all they had thought possible, they were not going to let the opportunity go by to show the "boy" that there is more than words behind the thanks.

Mrs. M. E. Swigart took a $100 bond. She has seven nephews in the war and hasn't decided which one will get the card.

Charles Grafton Bowen, who is driving an ambulance in France, is another whose Christmas will be made happier by a remembrance.
